NY 100-80641

On 3/13/58, NY 2179-S* advised that on above date a meeting was held in the 3rd floor board room, CP Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, NYC.

According to the informant, the following individuals were believed in attendance:

EUGENE DENNIS, ROBERT THOMPSON, WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr.; JACK STACHEL; [redacted] BILL (possibly ALBERTSON?); [redacted] and others not identified.

b6
b7C

According to the informant, the meeting pertained to the pressing need of maintaining "The Worker", the adoption of special features to attract readers, and the means of increasing "The Worker" subscriptions.

Remarks of ROBERT THOMPSON

THOMPSON opened the meeting and referred to the "indebtedness" (of "The Worker") which he remarked is exclusive of anything that PAT (WILLIAM L. PATTERSON) has been able to get (apparently referring to money).

THOMPSON, apparently referring to figures on the blackboard, commented that he was averaging close to $3,000 a week. He said that the week before it was nearly $900, and the week before that nearly $1,000 (informant believed that THOMPSON in referring to money he had collected, was speaking in his capacity as Organizational Secretary).

NY 100-80641

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

Informant reported that PATTERSON stated that the basic problem is a need for an increase in circulation (of "The Worker"). He also referred to the delivery problem of circulating the paper and indicated that he was keeping in touch with "Metro (PH)" (believed PATTERSON is referring to Metropolitan News Delivery Service).

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

DAVIS commented that he would liked to have seen a better display of (PAUL) ROBESON'S book.

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

According to the informant, PATTERSON, apparently referring again to figures on the blackboard, indicated that they would have to go over the budget at a later date because "we" have hospitalization and rent which was not included. He said that these two items would run it (budget?) up to $2,500 or more (a week?).

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

STACHEL commented that $25,000 a year would be the total cost. Informant reported that there were some dissenting voices raised concerning STACHEL'S remark.

NY 100-80641

Continuing, STACHEL stated that the problem is that when "you" had the paper (the "Daily Worker"?), "you" were always in danger of running it (budget?) up to $250,000, but now the highest "you" can have is $25,000. He said "we" are running now on a budget of $105,000 with a maximum income of $40,000, adding that if "we" went up to $50,000, "we" would still have $10,000 left (informant speculated that STACHEL is referring to the fund drive).

Unknown Male

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, inquired of STACHEL how much was owed in round figures, and STACHEL answered $10,000, less than $10,000. The unknown male then retorted that in other words, if that ($10,000?) was paid off, "we" would have everything paid for.

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

"I" would say that ("The Worker"?) income now is around $1,000. He then commented that perhaps it does not belong here, the talk "I" had with the Russians (informant speculated that possibly PATTERSON is referring to the Russian language newspaper in view of his following comments).

"I" went back to the meeting yesterday, JACK (STACHEL). The language press and "I" raised very sharply the "vital question of getting together". We discussed the question of a press which "I" think is the best approach.

NY 100-80641

Unknown Male

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, then inquired "how much money do you have to pay off this debt?"

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

"I" can not remember, "we" are making it possible to meet the mortgage, but "I" am not prepared to go into that at this time.

Remarks of [REDACTED]

b6
b7c

[REDACTED] stated that "the comrades" are prepared to buy stock (in "The Worker"?), or something like that to encourage the building of "The Worker".

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

STACHEL spoke and apparently directing his comment at LOMAN, exclaimed "CHARLIE remember how we used to always get the arguments the $1,000 income. If we had just a little more money and a better situation in the Party, we would have been able to save both (apparently referring to "Daily Worker" and "The Worker") close to $100,000. This is only important to answer your question". (The informant speculated that STACHEL is possibly ridiculing the previous remark of PATTERSON.)

NY 100-80641

Continuing, informant advised that STACHEL stated that by Labor Day "they" should be setting up a committee (to build "The Worker"). STACHEL said that this will depend on what is done in mass work and party registration, indicating that the biggest thing is the "sub drive".

Continuing, informant advised that STACHEL continued to speak concerning the sub drive indicating that it was a real problem in even holding the present circulation. STACHEL indicated that after the campaign it is possible to arrive at a lower circulation figure than they have now.

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

"We" have sent out of that office the name and address of everyone of these people, to every district and warned every district of the situation requesting them to see these people before the expiration (of subscriptions). PATTERSON indicated that there is only three districts anywhere near their mark, Illinois with 216, Minnesota 114, NY State as a whole 390.

PATTERSON indicated that the greatest losses (in circulation) will take place in NY unless people go out and work. He indicated that in NY they need a "full time worker". PATTERSON said that districts should be divided and subdivided on the basis of clubs with each club going over the names in order to avoid losses.

Remarks of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] commented that he was in favor of clubs taking over (circulation drive?).

b6
b7C

NY 100-80641

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

"I" want to speak on two things, one the sub drive and second the financial struggle. DAVIS indicated that the GATES' ideology hurt the paper and did a lot of harm to the Party. DAVIS commented that he was dissatisfied with the progress of the sub drive, the county organizers and the party as a whole. "We" have done some things that are important. "I" think it is up to "us", the NY State leadership, especially the staff to initiate the paper handling and to find some unusual methods (of work?).

DAVIS indicated that preparations have been made for a big conference to be held 4/2/58 which would highlight two questions, "The Worker" drive and May Day. DAVIS stated that they should prepare something prior to April 2, in order to highlight that situation. "I" am not prepared right now to say what "we" should do. He said there could be some county meetings, articles in "The Worker" perhaps giving some thought to "contests", "prizes" anything in order to drive home the urgency of the fund drive.

"We" must try to renew the confidence in the Party based upon the line that was set by the National Committee at its last meeting. "I" consider that uppermost and it must be based upon an attempt to revolutionize the Party organization toward mass work.

According to the informant, DAVIS in referring to "The Worker", commented that there has been a tremendous change in the paper saying that there was no comparison to what it used to be. He indicated however, that they must attempt to attract the masses of Puerto Rican people saying that the best way to do this is through "The Worker". DAVIS said that he would like to recommend to PAT (WILLIAM L. PATTERSON) the special problems of this minority group, indicating that possibly they would have a Spanish supplement in the paper.

Continuing, DAVIS said that he would like to discuss the question concerning finances. DAVIS, apparently referring to writings on the blackboard, commented that he thought it was a rather large sum. DAVIS said that perhaps "we" (NY State) could take care of $\frac{3}{4}$ s and "they" (National Office?) take care of $\frac{1}{4}$. "The Worker" has got to fight for itself. It can raise funds independently and it needs to change the "orientation" that all it has to do "is come here and pick up dough to solve its problems".

DAVIS commented that a certain amount of promotional activities has got to be carried on. PAT (WILLIAM L. PATTERSON) has displayed tremendous drive as business manager of the paper and "I" do not know if he could handle this (promotional work policy).

DAVIS indicated that "The Worker" could possibly sell 500 to 1,000 of ROBESON'S book and also commented that perhaps some deal could be worked out with the publisher. There is not a paper, even the rich bourgeoisie papers that is not raising funds by independent means. It seems to be important for "us" to find some independent way for raising "dough". Maybe it would start a whole independent existence in terms of initiative for itself. "I" do not mean independence in connection with the Party and the paper because in "my mind" this situation has to be basically resolved. "I" made this proposal or some variation of it in order to begin to change qualitatively the orientation of the paper so that it does not rely entirely on the Party to get its funds.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be BILL ALBERTSON

According to the informant, ALBERTSON spoke of the need to build up the paper and suggested that "they" organize in each county a "task force" for May Day. He indicated that these "task forces" be headed up by National Party (or National Guardian) people. He also thought that there should be a "box score" (informant believed that ALBERTSON is referring to a system of publishing the number of subscriptions obtained in each county).

Remarks of Individual Believed to be [REDACTED]

b6
b7c

Individual believed to be [REDACTED] stated that the big question is going through "these cards" and indicated that such a procedure required a great deal of organization (informant speculated [REDACTED] is referring to a list of former subscribers to the "Daily Worker" and "The Worker" who are to be recontacted).

Remarks of Individual Believed to be WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

"I" am in disagreement on the clubs. The club for "my" part would be based on volunteers who would report back to their clubs and discuss (the problem of) "The Worker". PATTERSON indicated that he has talked with youth groups in an effort to get youth interested in "The Worker" and thought that what was necessary was to interest the youths in coming to the clubs.

Continuing, PATTERSON apparently wrote a name on the blackboard saying that he had brought "her" from "uptown" to instruct "new women, Negro workers". PATTERSON said that with regards to promotional activities, "we" have sent out letters in every issue about rummage sales and about bazaars. He said that what is needed is an exhibit of cartoons which would give a panoramic view of the struggle of American people. He recommended that an album be made of cartoons in order to attract readers. PATTERSON also commented about emotional activities indicating that they should point up leading events in American life in which the working class played a part and possibly have special editions of "The Worker" around these events, for these are the things that make it ("The Worker") live and reflect the struggles of the American people.

PATTERSON indicated that there would be a special supplement regarding May Day which will be in the edition about two weeks prior thereto which will deal with May Day and the history of May Day. There is another thing "we" are talking about. "We" have already talked about getting from "her" some articles by this woman. "I" do not know if you know it, but "she" has been invited to China to spend some time there. These are some of the features that "we" want.

Continuing, PATTERSON commented that many people regard "The Worker" as an "extra camp" which it is not. "We" will certainly have the "box score" next week and "we" will run it for some time. One of the reasons why "we" did not have the "box score" was because "we" did not get the information from the districts and "we" got no response. JACK (STACHEL) said to give them an arbitrary quota and let them protest if they want to and that is what "we" are going to do.

According to the informant, PATTERSON closed his remarks by stating "comrades, if you want 'The Worker' you have to fight for it. We'll fight for this money".

NY 100-80641

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

"I" talked to BOB THOMPSON today about lining up those certain people who used to give big money to "The Worker". Some of them are now setting up a fund and there is several thousand dollars in that fund already. They are setting up a fund to teach Marxism - Leninism, definitely apart in the struggle. He (THOMPSON?) just came to "me" today and told "me" "I know there are several thousand dollars in the fund".

Remarks of BOB THOMPSON

"I" feel that this conference will be very helpful. "I", for one, like very much this proposition of "selling" "The Worker". "I" think you ought to analyze some of the proposals in the state (NY) and if you do, it will mark a real change. THOMPSON indicated that there was also a need for "spectacular things", the building up of the apparatus in counties and sections such as what [redacted] and BEN (DAVIS) call "the task force". Informant reported that an unidentified male then inquired of THOMPSON if he thought in his judgment, the setting up of special clubs was the answer at this time. Informant was unable to determine THOMPSON'S answer to the above question.

b6
b7c

Continuing, THOMPSON stated that he thought special meetings are necessary in order to instill a new appreciation of the Party in the membership and commented that what was needed was a real change in the attitude of the Party toward the paper. THOMPSON remarked that what they need was a plan of operation with regard to finances. He said "we" do not know where "we" are going to get the money and "you" do not know where "you" are going to get money, and G-- D--- don't tell me different. "I" think you have the same determination that "the paper is not going to fold". THOMPSON said that they must resolve the problem of what is going to be the "share" in responsibility of the "deficit" over the next number of weeks.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

DAVIS commented that the problem is the status of the finances. He said that the NY district has been gladly turning over funds to the paper. He indicated that they have been giving double; that they would do it again and will continue to do it when ever the paper needs it. DAVIS indicated that they even went so far as to withhold their own wages in order to contribute to the paper.

Remarks of Unknown Male

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant, commented in answer to DAVIS' statement, that NY State was better off than the National Office as the National Office did not have wages a lot of times.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

DAVIS commented that the real problem is to seriously consider just what the "share" should be, especially in the light of the continuing difficulty which "we" have in the state fund.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

STACHEL spoke concerning the need for a minimum of 5,000 subscriptions by May 1st. "We" have 1,000 now. STACHEL said that that was the minimum they could have in order for the paper to continue even on its present level. STACHEL indicated that the total cost for the paper for the next ten weeks would be approximately 45,000? dollars.

Continuing, informant advised that STACHEL then spoke about expirations (that is of subscriptions to the "Daily Worker" and "The Worker"). He indicated that there were eight or nine thousand people who had subscribed for the last three years and that these expired subscriptions are from people who used to read the paper, who were in the Party and are not direct followers of (JOHN) GATES or anybody else. "They" are just people who either dropped out (of the party?) or their subscription expired. He indicated that these people do not know how to renew their subscription and the only way they can subscribe now is to write directly. They do not know whether to write to BILL? or to "Box 36". He said these people do not want to write a check. There are thousands of people whose "subs" expired and who want to be part of our movement, who want to subscribe. "We" simply have to organize to reach these thousands of people in NY and by doing that in my opinion, "we" are not only going to get those subscriptions, but an additional 1,000 people in the Party. "We" can bring a lot of these people back to the Party and in doing that "we" will be building whole clubs.

Continuing, STACHEL remarked that they should organize a group of comrades who will volunteer to work for the paper, young comrades who will undertake the job for home? delivery. He indicated that such practices were used in the past. STACHEL concluded his remarks by commenting that the building of the Party goes hand in hand with the building of the "subs".

Remarks of BILL ALBERTSON

"Are we agreed on this sharing?" (Apparently sharing of the expense of worker).

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

Informant reported that DAVIS concluded the meeting by stating "we" have to be (in agreement) as there is no other way out.

Report on a class in Marxist theory held Monday evening, March 17, 1958, in room 11 H, at the Adelphi Hall, 74 Fifth Avenue. The name of the course was "Socialism in the United States - Six Key Problems." The speaker for the evening was James S. Allen. Nine people were in attendance. Among them were [redacted] and Anton from the East Side. (Anton worked with the People's Rights campaign. Two other young men and five middle-aged women were present.)

b6

[redacted] spoke about five minutes before the class began. He said he was disappointed in seeing so few people in a class that was probably one of the most important. He said the speakers who will give each week's lecture are all busy and important men and what they say is of tremendous value. He hoped that those present would visit their friends and get at least one other person to join them for next week's lecture.

b6

The class began a half hour late in the hope that more people would show up.

Allen began his talk by noting that we have much to gain from the methods and experiences of the socialist process that took place in all the socialist countries. The political and economic conditions were different so different means had to be utilized. Allen compared Russia to China and showed how China's path to Socialism was greatly assisted by utilizing the experience gained in Russia.

Allen then discussed the U.S. He thought a change in political power is necessary before Socialism can make any headway. Here he brought in peaceful and revolutionary means as the vehicle for this change. He thought that peaceful means could be used, as a matter of fact he hoped they could be used but the present ruling classes may not let them be peaceful. Allen said that Socialist forces use violence only when the ruling classes do so. He thought that the ruling classes in the U.S. would seek to destroy before they would relinquish their control.

From this Allen went on to peaceful co-existence between Soviet Russia and the U.S. He admitted that the both systems could not co-exist as far as basic philosophy was concerned but that they could agree on secondary things, for example disarmament, free atom zone etc. and from this some sort of co-existence may develop. But it could only be based on secondary not fundamental agreements.

In the U.S. Allen thought that Socialists could better achieve their ends by being a part of the vital political process such as working with the democratic party rather than eliminating any hope of alliance but forming their own group. This he thought would eliminate the Socialist from the working class which at present finds its peace in the democratic party.

Allen concluded his talk at this point since he thought other aspects of this problem would be brought up at other meetings. A question and answer period followed in which most of the audience participated. One young man criticized Allen's essay in the March issue of Political Affairs which disagreed with Bittlemans critique of the Welfare State. Allen's answer did satisfy the young man nor did he satisfy Allen in that he knew what he was talking about.

Anton and [] talked together before and after the meeting. Anton told [] that things are beginning to pick up on the East Side and that their was a big party at the Polonia Club. Anton said that the Party is beginning to pick up and that a young fellow named Henry was signed up. Anton said that he got Henry a job at Camp Kinderland over the summer as a counsellor. Anton said he has been combining his Worker subscription drive with gathering petitions for the Sobell Committee. He said both were coming along very well and showed [] eight signatures he received the past few days. Anton said when the party stops bickering more activities will be going on.

b6
b7c

NY 100-133594

One of the women at the lectures was one who canvassed with [redacted] during the People's Rights Campaign. Her name could be Marguerite (female, white, 5 ft. 6 in, 125 lbs, brown short haired, combed like a man's, birth spots or red marks around her face).

April 4, 1958

EUGENE DENNIS, on March 31, 1958, was discussing recent developments in the Communist Party - USA, with emphasis on the meeting of the National Executive Committee which was held in New York City on March 28 and 29, 1958. While DENNIS occasionally mentioned the person who gave the report on a particular topic at this National Executive Committee meeting, he was really presenting those items with which he was in agreement. He was also exaggerating in some instances. To this extent, his remarks should not be taken as an accurate report of the proceedings of this National Executive Committee meeting. Most of this discussion was conducted in writing at the residence of DENNIS in New York City.

PAUL ROBESON's Book, "Here I Stand"

DENNIS stated that the National Executive Committee meeting started with a discussion of the significance of PAUL ROBESON's book, "Here I Stand". In this connection, those present talked about new trends in the Negro movement in comparison with the early 1950's and the impact of this book on these new trends. It was felt that the book represents a unity of the Left and the progressive forces, with an outlook for a broader Negro movement. DENNIS stated that the goal is to distribute 100,000 copies of ROBESON's book. He said that it is selling pretty well and that they are going to try to distribute it in the labor movement in both the North and in the South.

According to DENNIS, the "Afro-American", a Negro newspaper, has serialized the biographical portion of the book and has run some serious editorials concerning it. Also, another Negro newspaper, the "Amsterdam News", carried a review by its leading columnist, one READING (ph), in which he said that the book contains something of interest for every American Negro.

MICKEY LIMA reported to the National Executive Committee that the selling of ROBESON's book and ROBESON's presence in California made an immense impact on the Negro community. LIMA said that they have not seen anything like it in California in years.

DENNIS mentioned a recent newspaper item in which Prime Minister JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, of India, is quoted in regard to PAUL ROBESON's book. DENNIS stated that NEHRU's statement will have great political significance in regard to the Negroes in the United States.

Congressional Elections

DENNIS stated that MICKEY LIMA gave a report to the National Executive Committee on the election campaign in California and that LIMA's report will result in an article which will appear in the May, 1958, issue of "Political Affairs".

DENNIS said that it is necessary to keep in mind that California is the springboard for Senator WILLIAM KNOWLAND and his "right-to-work" movement. Since they involve KNOWLAND and important legislation concerning the labor movement, the elections in California have a special national significance.

The Communist Party in California will raise a slogan and impart it to all who can be influenced by the Party. The essence of this slogan will be, "Defeat Knowland At All Costs".

According to DENNIS, there will be no oppositionist candidate from the Left for the governorship of California. The Communist Party will place emphasis on certain issues, and he believes that these issues reflect the thinking of the labor movement. These issues are: (1) Opposition to "right-to-work" legislation; (2) Unemployment relief and related economic problems; (3) Peace in connection with economics and with emphasis on trade with China; (4) Civil rights; and (5) Civil liberties.

Then DENNIS stated that in one California District it is definite that a "KNOWLAND Congressman" will be replaced by a Congressman friendly to labor. Then DENNIS said that one HOLLAND ROBERTS (ph), formerly the head of the California Labor School, is a candidate for State Superintendent of Education in California. According to DENNIS, ROBERTS is very progressive, is conducting a good campaign, and has a good chance of being elected. His program is anti-war and is for democracy and peace in education.

There is one fly in the ointment, according to DENNIS. He said that the Trotskyists, by shouting for independent working class candidates, may dissipate some of the strength of the labor movement and the Left in California. DENNIS stated, in this connection, that the Communist Party will run some candidates for Congress and the State Legislature in California. The Communist Party in California will also do everything it can to help establish independent committees to defeat KNOWLAND, and will characterize him as the "Senator from Formosa", since he talks more about Formosa than about California. DENNIS stated that the Communist Party would not endorse anyone merely because he was a candidate for one of the major political parties, not even candidates of the Democratic Party.

DENNIS stated that the Communist Party will try to influence the outcome of all Congressional elections and the events during the campaigns so that the labor movement, the Negro movement, and the farmers will actively participate in the campaigns.

The Communist Party will advance the idea of independent political action by encouraging the COPE of the AFL-CIO and by encouraging labor-farmer unity.

The Communist Party will also encourage activity by independent organizations of the workers around the following five issues: (1) Unemployment; (2) The need to transform "right-to-work" into the "right-to-a-job"; (3) Peace and international trade to end the recession; (4) Stopping of A and H Bomb tests; and (5) Demanding a summit conference.

DENNIS also stated that during the election campaigns, the Communist Party will advance its own position independently. It will bring forward its complete program. It will point to the possibility of unity with other groups, but will go beyond this.

DENNIS then cited an example of recent independent political action on the part of organized labor, and said that this shows that labor will not merely endorse Democratic Party candidates. He pointed out that STELLATO (ph), President of Local #600 of the United Auto Workers in Michigan, is a candidate against Congressman JOHN LESINSKI. DENNIS stated that this is no accident and it emphasizes the role of the CIO. While the CIO is sympathetic to the Democratic Party, it is no longer satisfied with lukewarm support and this is the reason for challenging JOHN LESINSKI.

With regard to Negro candidates, DENNIS stated that there is an outlook for a Negro candidate in Philadelphia. There is also a probability of one Negro Congressman from Ohio and the possibility of an additional Negro Congressman from Michigan.

Turning his attention to the Trotskyists once again, DENNIS stated that they are making an appeal for a united Socialist ticket. DENNIS stated that recently in Seattle, Washington, there was no opposition to the candidates for the Democratic and Republican Parties. As a result of this, the Trotskyists rolled up a vote of fourteen thousand for their candidate. Then DENNIS stated that an appeal for a united Socialist ticket is so much bunk. The Communist Party should reject such united fronts behind Trotskyist candidates.

When asked what is the attitude of the Communist Party - USA toward the "National Guardian", which supports a united Socialist ticket, DENNIS stated that the National Executive Committee will discuss this problem in May, 1958. Also, in the May issue of "Political Affairs" there will be an article which will not deal favorably with the policies of the "National Guardian". DENNIS also stated that in three or four weeks, the National Executive Committee will review the American Forum for Socialist Education. He commented that this will not be a sympathetic review, although the Communist Party may not withdraw all of its members from the American Forum for Socialist Education.

"The Worker"

Next DENNIS discussed "The Worker". He said that bundle orders have increased the bundle circulation by 2,500, and this average has been maintained since the "Daily Worker" folded. He also stated that 2,000 subscriptions have been obtained, and there is optimism about the chances of increasing the over-all circulation of "The Worker".

He talked about the change in the character of "The Worker" since JOHN GATES left. He said that there is an increase in working class news, such as unemployment and labor struggles. There is good coverage on the auto industry. There is now much more news and editorial comment on the Negro struggle.

Then he said that what "The Worker" needs now is more analytical articles and articles which set forth perspectives; however, these analytical articles will not be like those in the "National Guardian". They will combine analysis with perspectives.

DENNIS did discuss some of the negative factors of "The Worker". He mentioned the depletion of the staff. He said there is no deep foreign affairs news. He stated that both ABE MAGIL and SI GERSON have left the paper. While JIM ALLEN is not on the staff, he will write a weekly column on foreign affairs. They have also organized a group of people who will write on Latin American affairs and the Far East. While there is little or no news from Washington, D.C., at the present time, DENNIS stated that there will be weekly coverage of affairs in Washington. He said that they now have somebody in Washington who knows his stuff. DENNIS also stated that, on a voluntary basis, SI GERSON will review for "The Worker" the book "Masters of Deceit", by J. EDGAR HOOVER.

DENNIS then discussed the composition of the staff of "The Worker". He said that ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN is the Editor, while GEORGE MORRIS, JOE NORTH and JACK STACHEL are Associate Editors. ERIC BERT will continue to be the Managing Editor, but this will not be announced publicly since his wife has a job which would be endangered if he were publicly listed as the Business Manager of "The Worker". WILLIAM L. PATTERSON continues as the General Manager of "The Worker".

DENNIS stated that JESUS COLON is in the business office of "The Worker". While he writes a column, he is not a part of the editorial staff. DENNIS said that in the near future, they will try to add a Negro to the staff of "The Worker".

Labor Matters

DENNIS next discussed labor and unemployment. He stated that the National Executive Committee heard a report by GEORGE MORRIS, which was an estimate of the AFL-CIO Conference on Unemployment held in Washington, D.C., during the middle of March, 1958. DENNIS also stated that during the discussion period at the National Executive Committee meeting, they had a state-by-state survey of the activity of the Communist Party - USA in regard to unemployment.

When asked why "The Worker", in printing a list of demands resulting from the AFL-CIO Conference, omitted the demand for more armaments to decrease unemployment, DENNIS stated that this was not one of the demands of the Conference. He said that there were seven hundred delegates to the Conference, but most were trade union officials and few were rank and filers. Most of them spoke about their own problems in regard to unemployment. Only GEORGE MEANY dealt with the need for armaments, and this was ignored almost unanimously. It was not mentioned in the final list of demands resulting from the Conference. He said that the demands or the program contains eight points, and "The Worker" printed these eight points, just as they were listed by the AFL-CIO Conference.

DENNIS also stated that the delegates to this AFL-CIO Conference organized a lobby and visited Senators and Congressmen with this eight-point program. According to DENNIS, some of the Congressmen asked them to go further in their demands, particularly those in regard to a reduction in taxes.

Next DENNIS talked about unemployment struggles. He said there are real struggles in Ohio, Michigan and Illinois. He said that wherever possible, the Communist Party will urge the merger of demands in regard to unemployment with the movement of labor against the "right-to-work" laws. A "right-to-a-job" slogan will be used to campaign against "right-to-work" legislation.

He stated that the Communist Party in California was slow in getting started in the fight for economic demands, but now it is advocating more relief and a State program of public works.

According to DENNIS, the Communist Party of Ohio is the most advanced in the unemployment struggle. This is especially true in the steel industry and in the building trades. He said that in a number of cities in Ohio, including Cleveland, it was the initiative of the Communist Party and the labor movement which resulted in getting the City Councils to petition the Federal Government for an increase in unemployment compensation.

DENNIS stated that the relationship between the Communist Party and the trade unions in Ohio is good. He said that the Communist Party members in a Painters Local got the ball rolling in regard to the demands for unemployment relief. These demands were brought to the Union Council, and the Council was able to rally more important unions behind these demands.

According to DENNIS, the Communist Party has influence in Local #65 of the Warehouse Distributors Union in New York City, and this Local is beginning to do something and to lead the move for relief from unemployment. He said that a big movement is developing in Buffalo, New York, for relief from unemployment, and that the Communist Party is playing a role in this movement in Buffalo.

DENNIS stated that at the National Executive Committee meeting, he spoke about the political perspectives in the struggle in regard to unemployment. He said that he suggested that the Communist Party should go beyond the demands put forth by the unions and should add politics to the struggle. The Communist Party should show that a democratic and peaceful solution to this economic crisis is possible at the expense of the monopolies. The struggle can be given political content by showing which monopolies, trusts and financial oligarchies are behind the EISENHOWER Administration. They need to be exposed by name. We can also show in this expose that these monopolies and trusts are the chief manufacturers of armaments generally, and missiles specifically. They are also against a summit conference and the ending of H-Bomb tests. They are sparking the anti-labor drive. If there is a summit meeting, it will be because they are unable to prevent it and are forced into it by events both in the United States and abroad. Thus, it can be shown that the United States has an imperialist, monopolistic government.

When asked if there are any differences between the Democratic Party and the Republican Party, DENNIS said that although HARRY TRUMAN and JOHN FOSTER DULLES, who represents the EISENHOWER Administration, have a united front on foreign affairs and favor the continuation of the cold war, they differ seriously on the economic program.

Within the Democratic Party there is a split in regard to the anti-labor legislation being proposed by the McClellan Committee. The majority of the Democratic Party is more sympathetic to labor than the Republican Party. This will guarantee control of both Houses of Congress by the Democratic Party after the November elections.

The Economic Crisis

DENNIS turned to the economic crisis, and said that it must be called a crisis because that is what it is and it has not yet reached its depth. Even if there is an improvement here and there, there is no recovery in sight and there is no return to the boom period which prevailed after the Korean War.

What is the economic outlook? DENNIS said that the outlook is for only partial recovery with a larger army of unemployed. The farm crisis is not abating and will lead to political changes on a Congressional level. Where Republicans have been deeply entrenched, they will be defeated and it is quite likely that in the new Congress there will emerge a pro-labor, pro-farmer, pro-peace corps of representatives.

The Communist Party is planning to issue a quarter of a million copies of a leaflet dealing with unemployment, and this leaflet will be completed soon.

Scheduled Meetings

In the latter part of April, 1958, or early May, 1958, the Communist Party will call two conferences -- one in the Eastern part and one in the Midwestern part of the United States. These conferences will deal with the following: (1) Unemployment; (2) Congressional elections; and (3) The status of the Party registration.

The National Committee of the Communist Party - USA will meet during the first or second week of June, 1958.

Causes for Resignations from the Communist Party and Factionalism

DENNIS stated that at the National Executive Committee meeting, BOB THOMPSON spoke about the resignations from the Communist Party of twenty-one people from the California Districts and the resignation of several leaders of the New York District from their positions. DENNIS said that THOMPSON placed emphasis on the ultra-Left in assessing the cause of these resignations, while he, DENNIS, also dealt with the ultra-Left and with the defections from the Right.

DENNIS said that the ultra-Left makes a lot of noise, which is out of proportion to the number of its supporters. DENNIS stated that the ultra-Left has only twelve persons organized as a faction in the James Ford Section in Harlem; yet, they make a lot of noise. They have supporters in Brooklyn. There is also a link between CHARLIE LOMAN and MANNY BLUM. DENNIS said that the national leadership will smoke out these people.

DENNIS stated that recently at a meeting of the New York State Committee, BENJAMIN DAVIS attacked W. W. WEINSTONE and insinuated that WEINSTONE is giving aid and support to the ultra-Left. DENNIS stated that WEINSTONE wanted the Communist Party to put forth a full slate of either Communist Party or Leftist candidates in the November election in New York. DAVIS took issue with WEINSTONE and led the fight against him.

In speaking about the elections in New York State, DENNIS said that what may happen is that an independent candidate may run for United States Senator. He said that an effort has been made to get RALPH BUNCHE to run as a Senatorial candidate, but this probably will not happen. There is, however, a move to draft ELEANOR ROOSEVELT to run for the United States Senate from New York State.

DENNIS stated that THOMPSON made a very good report to the National Executive Committee and that he exposed the trade union policy of the ultra-Left. The ultra-Left states that there is no differentiation between leader and leader in the trade union movement. They are all alike. The main threat to the labor movement, according to the ultra-Left, is the "new class", which is the labor bureaucracy. DENNIS said that the Communist Party cannot tolerate such a viewpoint because the Party would be in a constant fight with the trade union leadership. It would get nowhere because there would be no room to maneuver.

In regard to election policy, the ultra-Left not only asks for a Communist Party slate of candidates or a Farmer-Labor Party, but would probably even endorse a Trotskyist slate.

With regard to the Negro question, the ultra-Left puts forth the slogan of Self-Determination in the Black Belt and emphasizes that Negro reformists are the main enemy. DENNIS said that the Communist Party - USA cannot support such a program.

DENNIS said that the ultra-Left had a national conference recently, which was attended by about fifty persons. He said that at this conference there was a move by the ultra ultra-Left to break away from the Communist Party and set up a new Communist Party, but the ultra ultra-Left was defeated by a vote of 38 to 18.

Then DENNIS said that within the ultra-Left there are still some good people who turned to the ultra-Left when JOHN GATES was the Editor of the "Daily Worker". He stated, We will have to try to win these few good ones away; however, the national leadership is determined to start a drive against all factions. The national leadership will stop the circulation of documents, appeals, etc., and will "crack down" on the ultra-Left.

With regard to the twenty-one resignations from the Communist Party in California, these will be condemned and the National Executive Committee will make certain that the attitude of National Committee members is known. The national leadership or National Office will expect all National Committee members to state their attitude clearly and let everyone know where they stand. In this regard, he particularly mentioned FRED FINE, SID STEIN and BILL SCHNEIDERMAN, and said that it also applies to anyone who had sympathized with the Right wing.

Then DENNIS stated that the National Executive Committee will also demand certain things from W. W. WEINSTONE, MANNY BLUM and the supporters of the ultra-Left. The National Executive Committee will demand that they fight for the line of the National Committee. DENNIS said that at the National Executive Committee meeting they voted for this policy and approach. Both CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and MICKEY LIMA voted for this approach. It is now a decision that all members of the National Committee will be expected to support majority decisions of the National Committee, even though they were in the minority in regard to these decisions and stated their objections at a meeting of the National Committee.

In the crackdown on the ultra-Left, the National Office will differentiate between leaders and followers. In Chicago, they will start with a couple of persons, one of whom is [redacted]. He will be told to shut up or get out of the Party. In New York, this will apply to HARRY HAYWOOD and [redacted]. In California, it will apply to AL LANNON.

b6

DENNIS said that at the National Executive Committee it was voted that BOB THOMPSON should prepare an article dealing with the ultra-Left. It was also voted that DENNIS should prepare an article dealing with the Right wing and resignations from the Communist Party. Both these articles will be sent to all State Committees before they are published. These articles are presently being prepared.

The Jewish Question

DENNIS said that actually what is happening in the Communist Party - USA is that the Jewish question is being raised by bourgeoisie nationalists, provocateurs and spies.

He said that those representing bourgeoisie nationalism are PAUL NOVICK, MORRIS SCHAPPES and SALTZMAN. He said that NOVICK has written a 25-page article, and it is being examined and considered for publication in "Political Affairs".

The Liberty Book Club was considering the publication and distribution of the recent book by HYMAN LEVY, a former member of the Communist Party of Great Britain, on the Jews and the national question. A review of this book is being sent to all members of the National Committee, with an accompanying letter by HY LUMER. DENNIS said that the Communist Party - USA will try to dissuade the Liberty Book Club from circulating LEVY's book.

Then DENNIS stated that the Communist Party is preparing conferences in New York on the Jewish question, and there will be a showdown on this issue. DENNIS said that he had heard that a document on the Jewish question is circulating in the Party. He said that he had not seen the document, but was told that it is well documented, has illustrations, etc.

Factionalism in Regard to Funds

DENNIS said that all kinds of charges are being made on the misuse of Party funds in New York and in Brooklyn. He stated that the National Executive Committee has voted to set up a committee of five non-functionaries in the National Office for the purpose of looking into the financial situation in New York and in Brooklyn. Thus far, they have named only two persons to this committee, and they are CHARLES DIRBA, the National Auditor, and CONSTANTINE RADZIE; however, three more persons will be added to this committee and it will start functioning soon.

Banning of H-Bomb Tests and a Summit Meeting

DENNIS said that he made the report to the National Executive Committee in regard to the banning of H-Bomb tests and a summit meeting. He said that he told the National Executive Committee that the USSR would make an announcement that H-Bomb tests would be halted by Russia. He said those present at the meeting asked him if he were a prophet, and he replied that he just knew that the Russians would make such an announcement. Then he said that the Communist Party - USA would issue a statement on the banning of H-Bomb tests.

DENNIS stated that there is a lot of activity in this field and the Communist Party is playing an important role. He mentioned the Quakers, the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, and the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy. He said that the activities in this regard are not accidental and they are national in scope. He said that five meetings in regard to the fight for peace and the ending of nuclear tests are being organized in New York. Ads are appearing in the newspapers, and ads will appear in the future. Petitions to halt the United States' tests in the Marshall Islands are being circulated, and this campaign is being tied in with a demand for a summit meeting.

DENNIS said that the main question is how to broaden this movement. He commented that various scientists are playing an important role in the broadening of this movement, but the statements of the scientists are not being properly utilized. He said that the trade unions can play a role in this movement. He mentioned that at the Denver Convention of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, a resolution in this regard was adopted. The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union is doing some work on this. Local #805 of the Teamsters Union in New York, where the Communist Party has a lot of influence, is doing something in this regard.

Communist Party Activity in the Trade Unions

DENNIS said that generally there is an increase in Communist Party activity in the trade unions. He said that for the first time in a year and a half, UE people sought out the Party leaders and he even talked to some UE members.

He said that in the Transport Workers Union in New York, there is a new relationship between Communist Party and non-Communist Party members, and some Communist Party members have been elected as stewards in this union. He stated that there are stirrings in Packing and in the United Auto Workers, with the Communist Party beginning to play a role in contract negotiations and relief from unemployment.

According to DENNIS, there is a lot of Communist Party activity in the trade unions in the State of Washington and an increase of Party influence in the Wood Workers Union and in the International Association of Machinists.

Communist Party Registration

DENNIS said that there was no over-all report in regard to the registration at the National Executive Committee meeting, but since several Districts were present, they obtained somewhat of a picture of what is happening in regard to the registration.

He said that Ohio has registered 87% of its membership at the time of the last registration, and by May 1, 1958, the Ohio District expects to register 450 members, or 100% of its last registration, and the Communist Party is being consolidated in Ohio.

In the New York District, 2,360 members had been registered by February, and by May 1, 1958, they will have a total registered membership of 3,000 in the New York District. The goal is to register 4,000 members in New York. He said that this may be a prolonged registration because they found that a lot of people became disconnected. It was not their fault that they are not registered.

The Southern California District thought that it would register 1,200, but only 1,000 have been registered up until now. Northern California has registered 450. He said that the Right wing is sabotaging the registration in Northern California, but the Party in that District is being consolidated despite this.

The State of Washington has registered 350. A total of 300 have been registered in the South. New Jersey has registered 250, but DENNIS believes they will go over 400 in New Jersey. There is absolutely no report on the registration in New England. DENNIS said that since CARL WINTER was not present at the National Executive Committee meeting, no registration figure was given for Michigan, but DENNIS believes the Michigan District has registered 350.

DENNIS said that the national total is now 6,000 registered members and that they hope to reach a total of 9,000 when the registration is completed. He again emphasized that it will be a prolonged registration. He commented that the Party is badly in need of organizers, and said that some of the District leaders did not even know how to conduct a registration.

Parenthetically speaking, it should be noted that DENNIS expects the leadership of the Communist Party - USA to claim that the membership of the Communist Party - USA is 9,000.

Publications

DENNIS stated that the present circulation of "Political Affairs" is 7,000, and this is an increase of 1,500 over last year. The circulation of "The Worker" was 9,300 when the "Daily Worker" closed down, and now the circulation of "The Worker" is 11,500.

Deficit Problems

According to DENNIS, it is expected that "The Worker" will operate at a deficit of $80,000 for the year 1958. He said they are still saddled with a $50,000 deficit or obligations left over from the "Daily Worker". These two deficits add up to $130,000.

He mentioned the "People's World", and said that it has a circulation of 8,700. A drive for $75,000 is being conducted by the "People's World", since this is the amount of the deficit for that paper. He mentioned that the ultra-Left on the West coast is boycotting the "People's World".

DENNIS also stated that those on the National Office payroll are four and one-half weeks behind in pay, and that most of the money currently being raised goes toward the maintenance of "The Worker".

Youth Matters

According to DENNIS, the Party is beginning to talk about the youth on the West coast and in Ohio. He stated that the youth are doing some work in the State of Washington. New York is also starting to do something in regard to the youth.

DENNIS said that there will be a youth conference during the summer of 1958, and this conference will put forward a new approach to a youth organization. While the Communist Party will initiate this youth conference, it may not be limited to the Communist Party.

The Communist Party - USA Program

DENNIS stated that at the next meeting of the National Executive Committee, there will be an exchange of opinion on the program of the British Communist Party. He said that three copies of the program of the Communist Party of Great Britain are currently circulating in New York.

There is an Economic Commission at work on the theoretical aspects of the present economy in the United States.

JAMES JACKSON will have a draft report on the South at the next National Executive Committee meeting.

Various sub-committees are working on analytical outlines for the Communist Party - USA program, and these should be completed by June 1, 1958. These sub-committees study, do research and gather material. They use a mere fraction of this material and set forth ideas simply and briefly for the Party program.

According to DENNIS, the actual drafting of the Communist Party program will start at the end of November, 1958, and it will be completed by December 31, 1958. This draft Party program will be the main material for discussion in preparation for another convention, and the next National Convention of the Communist Party - USA will undoubtedly take place in May, 1959.

On the Completion of the National Executive Committee and the National Office Staff

DENNIS stated that the National Executive Committee will be completed at the next meeting of the National Committee. He said that he would like to have one or two District Organizers from the East on the National Executive Committee, and in this regard mentioned PAT TOOHEY, who replaced MARTHA STONE as Chairman of the New Jersey Communist Party District.

DENNIS stated that it is possible that the National Office will not have a Labor or Trade Union Secretary. He said that GEORGE MEYERS has not accepted the position as yet. As a result, they may set up a Labor Advisory Council in "The Worker". This Labor Advisory Council will be similar to a Trade Union or Labor Commission. However, the Party, instead of speaking on trade union matters through a Labor Secretary, will speak through the pages of "The Worker".

Report on a class in Marist theory held Monday evening, March 24, 1958 at the Adelphi Hall, 74 Fifth Avenue. The class was the second in a series of the problems of Socialism in the U.S. Hyman Lumer was the speaker and his topic was "Key Problems of U.S. Socialism". Twenty three people were in attendance.

Among them Anton, [redacted], three women who were active campaigners for the People's Rights Party. A young fellow was in attendance for the second time, white, 5 ft 11, 165 lbs, about 25 years old, almost completely bald, glasses. Most of the faces in the class were new ones.

[redacted] made a few introductory remarks. He advised all present to sign up for other classes and to attend the Friday and Sunday night forums. Lumer began his talk by noting the contradictions between private ownership and the social production of capitalism. Society will not gain unless profits are first made. This leads to an anarchy in production with no central force to control it. Lumer brought in the idea of class struggle which always exists in Capitalism. It's basis is the profit system. The worker and the Capitalist constantly struggle for a large share of the profit. Even though the Capitalist requires a large market for the sale of his goods, he willingly restricts it by paying a low wage to the worker. Because of this over production follows and this leads to crisis and depression.

Lumer then discussed the Keynesian solution which have been applied to the U.S. economy. He classified this supposed solution as state aid to business. Joint stock programs, state subsidization of certain industries like the aviation and atomic energy, cartels and monopolies, etc. Lumer pointed out that these devices cannot correct the errors of Capitalism. Only the elimination of profit and the public ownership of the means of production will do it.

Lumer discussed the welfare state, government spending, the manipulation of credit and interest rates, the supply of money etc_ as ineffective remedies.

They will be useless as long as Capitalism exists because the inherent contradiction within the system, in the form of overproduction, will appear at regular intervals. Lumer closed his talk by mentioning that what he presented, was he hoped, a Marxist viewpoint.

Several questions were asked Lumer. Most were the usual sort with the exception of two disagreeing questions asked by a man who by philosophy was a Keyesian. (male, white, 5 ft 10 in, 140 lbs, glasses, brown hair, thin pointed nose, an excellent speaking voice.) This man disagreed with Lumer in that overproduction was the cause of crisis. Lumer's answer did not satisfy the individual.

Before the class began Anton was talking with [redacted]. Anton said that a committee against nuclear testing located at 44 st. gave the Sobell Committee $500. This week. Anton reported that he has been successful in getting both money and signatures for the Sobell Committee. Anton asked [redacted] his age and when [redacted] replied Anton remarked that he thought he was younger. He said they were getting many youths into youth groups.

" Baltimore, Maryland
March 26, 1958

The following report concerns a meeting of District Board members of the CP District which includes Maryland and Washington, D. C., which took place on March 24, 1958, at the home of GEORGE MEYERS, Acting Chairman of the District. In addition to MEYERS, also present at the meeting were BOB LEE, JACOB GREEN and THELMA GERENDE, all District Board members.

GREEN arrived at MEYERS' residence about 8:45 PM. He found MEYERS and the latter's father-in-law in the dining room.

At about 8:55 PM, BOB LEE arrived, bringing with him a box addressed to LEE care of the Greyhound Bus Station. It later developed that this box contained CP literature. Upon LEE's arrival, MEYERS' father-in-law went into the living room.

GERENDE arrived at about 9:05 PM. She brought with her some newspaper clippings and a copy of HYMAN LUMER's report on the economic situation which LUMER had given at the last National Committee (NC) meetings.

Following GERENDE's arrival, she and ALICE MEYERS left the dining room and had a short talk in the kitchen. They returned after a few moments, and [REDACTED] served coffee to the group and then left.

b6

After a short social conversation among the District Board members, at about 9:20 PM GERENDE suggested to MEYERS that they get under way and asked MEYERS if the District Board would discuss the HYMAN LUMER report that evening and prepare for the enlarged membership conferences which were to take place in April.

MEYERS replied in the negative. He said that he had spoken to [REDACTED] Chairman of the Washington, D. C., Branch of the CP, and that [REDACTED] was going

b6

to meet with the District Board on March 27, 1958, in Baltimore. MEYERS said he would rather wait for that meeting which would include District Committee members from Wash., D.C., & District Board members for discussion of forthcoming membership conferences and the HYMAN LUMER report.

MEYERS said that he planned to speak later on in the evening concerning a change in the National Executive Committee (NEC) and plans for the forthcoming NEC meeting.

MEYERS then stated that [redacted] had visited him recently and reported that her CP club would like to have two District Board members attend a club meeting scheduled for March 25, 1958, at the home of [redacted]. MEYERS said he understood that [redacted] had gone to [redacted] and had stated that differences still existed between the District Board members and District Committee members, and that he, [redacted] would like to be present at the March 25, 1958, meeting and air his views. MEYERS then said that he felt two District Board members should attend the meeting.

b6
b7C

MEYERS then stated that [redacted] had reported that [redacted] had told her that he had not attended the January 14, 1958, District Board - District Committee meeting because he had confused the dates, and had gone over to the meeting place, which was JACOB GREEN's home, on January 15, 1958, instead.

b6
b7C

GREEN then said that to the best of his knowledge [redacted] had not come to the GREEN residence on January 15, 1958. MEYERS told GREEN to drop the matter since it wasn't important.

b6
b7C

MEYERS said he wanted to propose that LEE and GREEN attend the [redacted] club meeting. He then said he could not attend because he had to go to a Trade Union Commission (TUC) meeting.

b6

GERENDE said she agreed with MEYERS' proposal and that she had made other arrangements for March 25, 1958, and she had planned to visit people on that date she was trying to bring back into the CP.

LEE said he didn't mind going, but pointed out that with a CP meeting set for Thursday, March 27, 1958, he did not know whether he could handle his business affairs and carry out Party responsibilities that week. He said he might be late for the CP meeting of March 27, 1958.

GREEN agreed to attend the [redacted] club meeting, and then asked why [redacted] received so much attention. GREEN pointed out that [redacted] was in the Steel Club and could see no reason why [redacted] should appear at the [redacted] club meeting in order to air his views. GREEN suggested that if [redacted] had disagreements with the District Board, he should contact District Board members, not [redacted].

b7C

The other District Board members agreed that GREEN's position was correct, and MEYERS said that the point made by GREEN should be expressed at the [redacted] club meeting.

b7C

LEE said to GREEN that he might not realize the situation in the Northwest since GREEN had not had much contact with that group. LEE said that he regarded the [redacted] club as the focal point of the Northwest CP Section and the center of the factional group in the Party in this area. LEE then commented that the whole club consisted largely of Jewish people. LEE said the reason [redacted] was concentrating on that club was because the club, though not large, carried quite a bit of weight with persons in the Northwest Section connected with or formerly connected with the CP.

b6
b7C

GREEN then stated that he was glad to attend the meeting, and appreciated any information regarding the situation in the Northwest Section since it would help in attending the [redacted] club meeting.

b6
b7C

MEYERS then said to GREEN that there were quite a number of "good people" in the [redacted] club. He cautioned GREEN to maintain the same attitude as

b6

had been maintained in past discussions, that is speaking mostly of rebuilding the Party and maintaining the CP in its original form.

At this point GERENDE said she would give GREEN some highlights on information she had received from [redacted]

MEYERS interrupted GERENDE, saying he had something that he wanted to express at that time. MEYERS said he had written to BOB THOMPSON asking for a breakdown on situations in other CP Districts after the Districts had received reports on the recent NEC and NC meetings. MEYERS then took out a two page letter, which he said he had received from THOMPSON in reply to MEYERS' letter. MEYERS said that the THOMPSON letter indicated that THOMPSON did not have a clear picture nation-wide, but that in Michigan, Ohio, Chicago, and California favorable responses had been received whereas the response from Philadelphia, New Jersey and New York had not been too favorable.

MEYERS said that this was about as good a picture as he could give at that time and after he had attended the NEC meetings of March 29-30, 1958, he would have a better picture of the situation.

GERENDE then asked MEYERS whether he was definitely attending the next NEC meetings, and MEYERS replied that he had to attend and he had the program for the forthcoming meetings with him. MEYERS then said that CARL WINTER from Michigan, after declining, had finally accepted a position on the NEC and would make a report on the auto situation in Detroit at the next NEC meeting. MEYERS said at the next NEC meetings there would also be reports on the AFL-CIO situation, the recession, a report from MICKEY LIMA of California, a report on registration, and in addition there would be steps taken to elect five members to the NEC.

MEYERS then said he planned to leave Baltimore some time Friday, March 28, 1958, and would be in New York Saturday and Sunday, March 29 and 30, 1958.

MEYERS then told the group that over the weekend,

[redacted]
[redacted] had been in the city and had visited [redacted] and had held discussions with him on the situation within the Party, and after seeing [redacted] had visited MEYERS.

b6
b7C
b7D

GERENDE asked MEYERS repeatedly what [redacted] had had to say, but MEYERS would not give her a direct answer.

b6
b7C

GERENDE then told GREEN that [redacted] had come to see her recently and [redacted] had declared that discussions in [redacted] club had taken place around the last report made by EUGENE DENNIS, but that the discussions had never been successfully concluded since some of the members did not have the report.

b6

GERENDE then said that someone in the Northwest Section was under suspicion of being an FBI informant, and after inquiry by BOB LEE as to what she meant, stated that there was nothing concrete to go on, it was simply that after being accepted back into the Party the person had immediately taken out a subscription for The Worker and had not participated correctly in some club discussions.

At this point MEYERS interrupted angrily asking the group how they expected to build the Party. He pointed out that almost everyone who had accepted membership in the CP had been pointed out as having something wrong with them. He then said that he himself had been approached by a man from "auto" who had wanted to discuss union difficulties in the UAW, but that he, MEYERS, had never given the individual a satisfactory answer. MEYERS said that this type of action by himself as well as others would have to be stopped if they intended to build the Party.

LEE then said to MEYERS that although accepting responsibility for attending the [redacted] club meeting, he wanted it made clear that he was in no position to speak on national events. LEE then said he felt that before he and GREEN took any position at the March 25, 1958, meeting, they should first request the [redacted] club members to make clear whatever criticism

b7C

was being brought against the District Board.

The rest agreed with LEE, and GERENDE, instructing LEE and GREEN how to act at the March 25, 1958, meeting, told them to stress that the District Board was in full agreement with the 16th Convention of the CP. She told them not to be on the defensive and to emphasize that the District Board was trying to rebuild the Party.

MEYERS then told LEE and GREEN that at the March 25, 1958, meeting they should make it clear that JOHN GATES had worked in the Party under false pretenses and that some people still in the Party were operating under false pretenses the same as GATES.

LEE then said that he had received CP literature from New York and opened the brown package that he had brought to the house. The package contained 50 copies of the March, 1958, issue of Political Affairs, 10 copies of the March, 1958, issue of Masses and Mainstream and 15 copies of PAUL ROBESON's latest book, "Here I Stand."

GERENDE then took 17 copies of Political Affairs, 3 copies of Masses and Mainstream, and 3 copies of ROBESON's book.

At this point GREEN suggested that since he would not attend the next TUC meeting, that MEYERS should take the CP literature for TUC members. MEYERS agreed.

GREEN took 2 copies of Political Affairs and 5 copies of ROBESON's book.

LEE took 12 copies of Political Affairs, 2 Masses and Mainstream, and 3 copies of ROBESON's book.

MEYERS took 19 copies of Political Affairs, 5 copies of Masses and Mainstream and 4 copies of ROBESON's book.

The meeting then ended about 10:10 PM.

LEE drove GREEN home, and en route it was decided that ORGANIZATION. National Office of CP, USA maintained at 23 W. 26th St., NYC, in building with NY State CP. JACK STACHEL on 2/13/58 stated Left wing worried concerning getting around moving office to Chicago, and that CP is in need of breathing spell to get to work; that move would cost thousands not available, and "The Worker" would fail if moved. National Committee meeting 2/15 & 16/58 voted 28 to 15 to refer question of move to NEC for discussion with districts. EUGENE DENNIS at NEC meeting prior to NC meeting in February, 1958, urged CP struggle for unity, making 6 points: participation in class struggle, basing this on Convention resolutions, rebuilding CP on Marxism - Leninism, struggle against revisionists and opportunists, agreement of NC on these points and re-organization of leadership. At NC meeting DENNIS said, in his resolution, idea of united party of Socialism was not used to carry out decisions of Convention but to disunite the Party. NC approved creation of new 15 member NEC and election by NEC of new secretaries, subject to confirmation by NC. Only 9 were elected, remaining 6 to be elected at next NC meeting. Successful candidates identified as ALBERT LIMA, GEORGE MEYERS, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, JAMES JACKSON, HYMAN LUMER, JACK STACHEL, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, EUGENE DENNIS, and ROBERT THOMPSON. Informant describes election as victory for Left wing. MEMBERSHIP. By letter 1/28/58 SID STEIN as Organization Secretary, noted registration drive undertaken in November, 1957, but very few statements received from districts. ARNOLD JOHNSON on 1/28/58 commented that districts should take registration seriously since CP, through factionalism, was continuing to lose members; also it had been decided those who had been dropped or left CP since 1950 would be contacted for registration unless they have given information against CP or evidence against them had been produced. JOHNSON stressed importance of registering those in trade union movement, particularly auto, ship building, and steel. FUNDS. CP, USA receipts for 1957 totaled $196,079.78 with expenses amounting to $196,961.39. Income 1/1/58 to 2/28/58 $25,677.93 with expenses $27,659.39. CP assets as of 2/28/58 $9,268.41 and liabilities same date $13,094.86. CP reported, as of 3/12/58, largely unsuccessful in campaign for donations, this being attributed to stories of past "misappropriations" by functionaries.

SECURITY MEASURES. On 1/10/58 informant stated CP leadership had ordered that communications to districts should be handled only by NC members. ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN at NEC meeting 2/14/58 complained that security had been thrown out window and there was no regard for possibility of action against CP.

FACTIONALISM. JOHN GATES, member of NC and NEC and Editor of "The Worker" and "Daily Worker," resigned from CP by letter dated 1/9/58, asserting he had hoped 2 years struggle in CP would transform Party, but program of 16th National Convention had been betrayed. CP press release in reply claimed GATES had lost theoretical bearings and could not see CP moving to overcome crisis. EUGENE DENNIS at NC meeting in February, 1958, stated it was no secret CP was divided on all levels and they must struggle against revisionism and sectarianism or dogmatism. WILLIAM Z. FOSTER on 3/8/58 stated while CP is down, international situation is good as far as Communism is concerned.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. In response to declaration of 12 Communist and Workers Parties of socialist countries signed in Moscow, November, 1957, CP, USA in statement published in January, 1958 "Political Affairs," agreed question of peace is crucial and forces of peace can prevent war; however, CP would not accept uncritically views of brother parties, and expressed belief only it can best chart American road to Socialism. December, 1957 "Kommunist," theoretical organ of CPSU, published article "The Struggle of Fraternal Communist Parties Against Contemporary Opportunism" in which charge made GATES and other revisionist elements had concluded CP no longer necessary. as demonstration of loyalty to Marxism-Leninism and proletarian internationalism, but said struggle there against right opportunism was not carried to completion and revisionists still carry on factional activity. Motion passed at NC meeting, February, 1958, to ask corrections in article.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY. Bronx Civil Liberties Committee on 3/5/58 approved messages to President and Speaker of House requesting amnesty for GILBERT GREEN and HENRY WINSTON, and repeal of SMITH and WALTER-MC CARRAN Acts.

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES. "The Worker" editorial 1/26/58 entitled "Communists Bid Congress Act On Peoples' Needs" noted issuance of CP legislative program for action on 3 major issues - peace, economic security and civil rights. Among proposals advanced were summit conference, suspension of nuclear tests and disarmament agreements, repeal of TAFT-HARTLEY Act and restoration of protection of rights of labor and strengthening of enforcement of constitutional rights of minorities.

DOMESTIC ADMINISTRATION ISSUES. ARNOLD JOHNSON in letter 3/5/58 to all districts, asked for summaries of cases of political repression and status of civil liberties and civil rights. Following report at NC meeting February, 1958, on economic situation, which suggested CP demand increase in all sorts of relief, EUGENE DENNIS stated CP can give leadership to all suffering as result of depression.

STRATEGY IN INDUSTRY. FRED FINE stated 1/21/58 CP will not blindly follow labor leaders or labor organizations, or political organizations on all issues, but only on selective basis. Some unions, he said, allow CP members to work openly and therefore, CP should revise its united front policy.

NEGRO QUESTION. BENJAMIN J. DAVIS at NC meeting, February, 1958, stated that while CP should raise economic demands of Negroes it should also fight for more civil rights and oppose idea further civil rights legislation is unnecessary. DAVIS stated Negro question is special one for CP in US and has international significance. NC, in statement in "The Worker," 2/9/58 on Negro History Week, pledged renewed dedication to Negro peoples' struggle for equality. PETTIS PERRY in February, 1958 "Political Affairs" article declared role of CP is sustained struggle for Negro rights carried on in its name and in unity with all other democratic organizations and individuals.

YOUTH MATTERS. EARL DURHAM in memo dated January, 1958 to all District Youth Commissions, set out opinion CP must begin activities, particularly on campus, to re-establish Party clubs with outlook for Marxist discussions and struggles around youth questions. Plan for such work said to be in preparation for submission to NC.

WOMEN. ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN in article in "The Worker," 3/9/58 on International Women's Day stated women in socialist countries in last 50 years have gained equal rights and have made great progress in all spheres, but in US same 50 year old worries of unemployment and inequality in industry and professions still prevail.

FARMERS' MATTERS. CP legislative program for 85th Congress, with reference to farm problem, urges income parity provisions of Brannan Plan, crop and livestock insurance, loans to small farmers, tenant farmers, and sharecroppers for land and supplies. [] of Montana suggested at NC meeting February, 1958 that CP raise demand for unemployment compensation for farmers.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES. "The Worker" 1/26/58 in tribute to WILLIAM HAZLITT, British writer, 1778 - 1830, described him as not only a political fighter, but one who ranged through all varieties of passionate life and wrote on daily life of man. Review of "Not By Bread Alone," a novel by DUDINTSEV, a Soviet writer, appearing in February, 1958 "Mainstream," states author's concern is for those so absorbed by power that they have forgotten aim of Communism is to abolish it all together.

NATIONAL GROUPS. ROBERT THOMPSON on 3/4/58 attributed to neglect for past years indication Jewish leaders and comrades on "Morning Freiheit" will break away from CP and unless preventive measures were taken they could not be replaced with "new loyal forces." JACK STACHEL has stated "Jewish Life" is in hands of Right wing supporters who have anti-Soviet tendencies. He said many Jews are not satisfied Soviets have cleared up problem of Jewish question in Russia.

PAMPHLETS AND PUBLICATIONS. "Daily Worker" announced its suspension on 1/13/58 after 34 years of publication, with "The Worker" continuing as weekly. WILLIAM L. as of February, 1958 said to be a little over 11,000, increase of about 1,500 over January, 1958.

EDUCATION. ARNOLD JOHNSON on 1/26/58 observed that CP's failure to instill understanding of Marxist-Leninist theory was due to use of language exceeding intellectual capacity of working masses. He said CP must modify its language so working class can comprehend discussions.

ATTEMPTS OF CP TO INFILTRATE MASS ORGANIZATIONS. Referring to CP participation in socialist forums CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stated on 1/3/58 it would not be good for Party to urge attendance of rank and file because it would confuse some to hear that others were organizing forums presenting anti-Communist speakers. He noted CP only aids such forums and does not control them. LIGHTFOOT on 1/20/58 said May, 1957 Prayer Pilgrimage to Washington and campaign against nuclear weapons were only significant accomplishments and handled by NC because of mass pressure and because CP plainly saw its role.

This section has been prepared by SA JOSEPH V. WATERS.

On January 16, 1958, T-25 provided a copy of a letter written by SID STEIN dated January 9, 1958, and addressed: "Dear Comrades". STEIN's letter pointed out that, in line with a decision of the National Committee, booklets of Southern Solidarity Assessment stamps had been sent to them and it had been hoped that in the course of the registration drive it would be possible, while collecting dues, that they would be able to collect such assessments as well as collecting dues. STEIN said that no acknowledgement had been received of the receipt of the booklets of stamps or that collection of such assessments had been started.

In a postscript to this letter, STEIN expressed a desire for some response on the progress of the registration in the districts. He noted that no information had been received on either the progress or the problems of the registration drive.

On February 6, 1958, T-11 made available a copy of a letter dated January 28, 1958, addressed to all districts and signed by SID STEIN. This letter pointed out that the registration drive had begun in November, 1957, and although it was then the end of January, very few statements had been received from the districts as to the number of people registered, the problems encountered in registration or the perspective regarding the total that would be registered.

STEIN went on to state that it would be necessary at the meeting of the National Committee in February to make certain conclusions regarding registration. The Committee, he said, would have to decide whether to formally close the registration drive or to continue it. He asked that the information as to registration be furnished as soon as possible and not later than the meeting of the National Executive Committee on February 14, 1958.

STEIN noted too that there had been no response from any of the districts in connection with the disposal of Southern Solidarity stamps. He urged that both dues payments and the Southern Solidarity Assessment returns be sent immediately.

T-5 on January 29, 1958, has advised that ARNOLD JOHNSON on January 28, 1958, had stated that the national leadership had communicated a request to all CP Districts requesting them to push the membership registration so that the Party could determine the size of its organization as of the end of 1957. JOHNSON said that as far as he knew, no district had fulfilled the request. He pointed out that it was almost a month after the time the leadership should have known the strength of the CP and it was time to get moving.

JOHNSON also said that although the districts had not acted on registration, a number of suggestions as to handling it had been received. Some suggested registration should go back to 1956 or to 1955 and some wanted to back to 1950, and in some cases back as far as possible. He said that he, as well as the leaders who were followers of EUGENE DENNIS, felt each district should use its own judgement as to how far to go back since each was familiar with its own local situation. He emphasized that districts should take registration seriously since through factionalism, the Party was continuing to lose members.

JOHNSON also said that people had dropped out of the Party or had been dropped but that did not mean they were enemies. He mentioned that some who had left the Party or who had been dropped had said upon recontact that they felt themselves to be part of the organization even during the period they were not active or paying dues even though that interval might have lasted many years.

He also said that DENNIS' forces had discussed the caliber of those who had left or had been dropped during the years 1950 to 1957, and had also discussed those accused of being informants where the organization had not been presented with a definite reason for depriving such accused persons of membership. This discussion had resulted in decisions that all who had left the Party would be contacted and asked to re-register and those who had been labeled enemies of the Party be asked to re-register unless evidence against them had been produced. He further explained that any persons who had not appeared before any committee to give information against the Party or who had not been a participant in any activity indicating an enmity toward the Party would be asked to register. He observed that leaders in some areas had been narrow-minded and this had almost caused liquidation of the Party. This could not go on if the intent was to have a large working class organization.

JOHNSON stressed the primary importance of registering working class people such as those in the trade union movement particularly auto, ship-building and steel. Following registration of such people, there might be a broader concentration on registration.

T-7 on March 5, 1958, has reported that on February 27, 1958, ROBERT THOMPSON stated that the CP Leadership must defeat the sit-down of the Right wing and to do that he was striving to mobilize the CP around a few points in order to show that more would have been accomplished if the Right wing had cooperated. One of these points of concentration, according to THOMPSON, would be the arrest of the decline of the Party membership. THOMPSON noted that in connection with the current registration, the effort was dragging and registration should have been completed two months before. An effort was to be made to have the Party get every member on the books.

III. GLOSSARY OF ORGANIZATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

The following named organizations and publications, mentioned in this report, may be characterized as follows:

AMERICAN FORUM FOR A SOCIALIST EDUCATION (AFFSE)

According to an article appearing in the May 13, 1957, issue of the "Daily Worker," page 1, column 2, A.J. MUSTE, well known pacifist, announced the formation of the AFFSE. According to this article, the American Forum seeks to promote "study and serious untrammelled political discussions among all elements that think of themselves as related to historic socialist and labor traditions, values and objectives . . . however deep and bitter their differences may have been."

This article reflects that a forty-member national committee had been established and, according to MUSTE, these persons serve as individuals and not as delegated representatives of any group.

MUSTE, according to this article, stated that the American Forum is not a membership organization and does not propose to promote united action by various parties or groups, mergers or new organizations.

The article reflects that among other purposes the AFFSE seeks to call attention to the various publications of the groups whose people engage in discussion; to publish bulletins or pamphlets; to organize regional and national conferences; contribute to the building of new morale and ethic, a spirit of fair play, labor militancy, determination and hope among the progressive and radical forces in this country.

SOCIALIST YOUTH COMMITTEE OF CHICAGO

T-32 advised during October, 1957, that the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago was founded at the Left-Wing Caucus of the Young Socialist League held at Chicago, Illinois, on October 17, 1957. The aims and purposes of the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago, are to bring about a re-groupment of all radical youth into a common organization.

SOCIALIST YOUTH LEAGUE

YOUNG SOCIALIST LEAGUE (YSL)

The March 1, 1954 issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a Unity Conference occurring December 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York City, a merger occurred between the Young Peoples Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). NY 100-4931

T-30, on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. SITEMAN, "Chairman of the SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the SP. He explained that what did happen was a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purpose.

T-31 advised on April 9, 1956, as follows:

The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances, YSL members are also members of the ISL. The YSL and the ISL utilize the same printing house in New York City, and the YSL publication is printed as an insert in the ISL publication, "Labor Action." Frequently, lecturers before the YSL are ISL members.

The National Headquarters of the YSL is located at 114 West 14th Street, New York City.

On 4/16/58, NY 2002-S*, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available photographs of material located at CPUSA, National Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, NYC. Included in this material, copies of which are attached hereto, was a list containing a breakdown of CP Registration for the State of Ohio as of 3/14/58. This breakdown compares registration tables for the years 1956, 1957, and 1958, (March) for the various CP Sections located in Cleveland as well as other cities throughout the state.

This list reflects CP registrations for the state of Ohio to be 363 as of 3/14/58. This is therefore broken down to Cleveland (226), outside Cleveland (134), plus three recruits. The list also contains the figure 390 which appears to be the estimated membership at the completion of the registration.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

"We" invited CARL WINTER, GEORGE (MORRIS), ARNOLD (JOHNSON), and PAUL (ROBESON, JR.). DENNIS commented that GEORGE MORRIS is the personal representative from the AFL-CIO Conference.

"We" would like to take up during the day the report by BEN (DAVIS), dealing with PAUL ROBESON's book and then the question of his passport to Russia. Next a report by MICKY (LIMA) on the result of the California elections. A report on "The Worker", progress report on auto and personal matters.

"We" will open tomorrow's session with the AFL-CIO conference report, a review of housing and slums, and important discussion on the "ultra-left" and their activities, a report and discussion on State and National registration. That briefly is the schedule.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

GENE (DENNIS) "I" want to say something concerning the question of recognition. BILL ALBERTSON is State Secretary of the Party in New York. "I" have a feeling he (ALBERTSON?) would like to see you.

Remarks of BOB THOMPSON

As far as the inviting was concerned, the reason "we" did not invite BILL (ALBERTSON) was that "we" did not realize his status with the State.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

Comrades "I" want to take up the question concerning ROBESON and this is a good time to do it as ROBESON's birthday is April 9. "I" want to comment a little bit on how this event is being run. "We" asked Comrade PAULIE (PAUL ROBESON, JR.) to come because he has been associated intimately with various aspects of PAUL's (PAUL ROBESON, SR.) activity.

"We" are dealing here with one of the great figures of the world. "I" have written the review of his book as a commentary on the tremendous political significance of his writing this book and the impact it has today on the national community. "I" will not go into that. "I" will leave that to the columnists.

Secondly there is the right for PAUL (ROBESON) to travel, that is his passport difficulties which is a real danger and threat. It was defended in today's "New York Times." This is the Party's fight.

The third aspect of PAUL's activity is the question of his concert tour. We have to take note that PAUL has resumed his career which of course is located primarily on the West Coast, where the Negro people, the progressive labor forces, and the Party forces have done a magnificent job. We have to consider this the very necessary, a very vital part of PAUL's relationship with the American people.

The fourth aspect which you might be interested in, one which "I" gave prime attention, was the book, this book which "I" call "Here I Stand." Now this book is getting a tremendous reception here and internationally? The book itself is a fine document, a documentary, a brilliant piece of writing and application of Marxism on the part of PAUL that is fearless.

Now in my opinion all these aspects come to a head around PAUL's birthday. In various parts of the country they are sending birthday greetings, holding birthday celebrations, in fact, PAUL is going to be in Chicago on his birthday where "I" think there will be a tremendous gathering marking his birthday. Just recently in the "New York Times," the March 21 issue, there was a story concerning the marking of PAUL's birthday by 400 people in India, the second largest nation in the world. Now that country (India) is going to have a nation-wide celebration of PAUL's birthday.

The celebration of his birthday is not only the tribute to an individual but to a cause. This is an excerpt from Nehru's Statement as published in the "New York Times."

Now "my" opinion of Nehru's Statement is that it is just one of the biggest developments in the whole movement internationally around the struggle for Negro rights, around ROBESON, and represents a distinct slap in the face to the State Department.

With respect to the book, I think all the comrades have seen the book and I am not going to ask how many have read it, I do not want to put anybody on the spot. Actually it is not necessary to review the book here, but "I" would like to show the impact this book has had on the Negro people. "I" think this constitutes a new stage to the development of the old Negro people's movement and certainly constitutes a new stage with respect to ROBESON. The Baltimore "Afro-American" is serializing the first two chapters. They have had several editorials on it. Their book reviewer, who is not of ROBESON's convictions nor of the CP, has written a most glowing review of this book.

We have a very brief but very important commentary that was published in "The Worker" as of March 16, where a group of testimonials were given by a number of Negro people and a number of whites. "I" just want to read a few excerpts from the review of the book given by SAUNDRA GRAY (ph.), who is an author himself, one of the outstanding Negro lecturers, who was sent by the State Department to India to play the part of publishing the position of the Negro people in America. He came back and wrote a book on his experiences. He points out that no matter where he goes the people of India wanted to know what happened to PAUL ROBESON and why PAUL ROBESON does not come back to India.

PAUL ROBESON is a member of a family that goes back four generations, that has been here 200 years. It is a tradition that is as vital to him as it was in his great great grandfather.

You might want to know that the "Afro-American" is the most widely circulated of all Negro papers. Now here is what "The Crusader," the Chicago Negro weekly, says:

We here at the Negro Crusader have been vitally interested because we have felt all along that the great athlete, singer, lawyer, as well as freedom fighter has been cruelly maligned because he would not bend down to the white folks. ROBESON's great error has been that he ? was called a Communist and Russian lover without defending himself or answering those who accused him. He was flogged. Instead, PAUL ROBESON has been the mightiest of all Negro voices and when his friendship for the Soviets came under fire by the Dies Committee, the Un-American Activities Committee in Congress, the personal issue went so far that his marvelous achievement of becoming one of WALTER CAMP's all-time, all-American football players was dropped by most newspapers. This was all forgotten except by "The Crusader," "Amsterdam News," and the "Afro-American," who joined with white papers to celebrate this great event. Other Negro editors scared that Washington might send the FBI to check on them, took to their heels whenever the name of ROBESON was mentioned. The truth is, as ROBESON points out in his book, I have never been involved in national ... of any kind and do not know anybody who is. He said this all under oath in 1946 in California; that he is not a member of the CP. Our ___ is that ROBESON has not defended himself at a time when his race needs the leadership he represents. The white folks are scared of his leadership.

According to the informant, DAVIS finished reading the review from the Chicago "Crusader."

Continuing, DAVIS remarked that this shows the impact which this book has had throughout the country.

According to the informant BEN DAVIS also read several testimonials from throughout the country concerning ROBESON's book. DAVIS commented that the only adverse criticism came from a review in the "Partisan" (ph.). They said that Mr. ROBESON is naive and unaware of present day ideologies.

"I" think the book tends to become a national document, a national manifesto, a national statement. The book is primarily addressed to the Negro people. "I" understand that the Chicago district is trying to handle 3,000 copies and I hope that others will set themselves a high goal, "we" want possibly to handle 5,000 copies in New York. With respect to New York "we" have a special job to do. There is a nationally organized PAUL ROBESON movement with a national committee in Britain that has organized around the right of PAUL ROBESON to come to Britain. On the book we should try to eventually publish 100,000 copies for distribution in America. Of the total number of books distributed so far, two-thirds have been distributed by independent leaders, the other one-third by New Century Publishers.

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

It is my opinion that two things have occurred during recent months. One is the dissatisfaction with supporters of the Democratic and Republican Parties. The slowness with which they have unfolded the segregation program in the South, coupled with the outbreak of a economic crisis. Anybody who thinks there is no connection with Negro rights and the economic crisis is foolish. They realize that their banks are going to fail, their insurance companies are going to fail, and small business is going to feel the effects of this crisis. "I" do not say that this is the same power as in the 1935 crisis, but I know that unless something is done, people will say do something or we will vote for the Communists.

LIGHTFOOT then refers to ROBESON's book, saying that it is an ideological combination for the extension of the left in the Negro community, a restoration of the Negro's citizenship. "I" am not talking strictly about left wingers but that may soon come in the more advanced Negro communities. This book can lay the ideological ground work for the building of a movement, so lets not look at it purely as a book, but the basis for building a movement.

In this movement "we" will bring back many not directly in the Party, but will come in close contact with us. Many people have left us in the last ten years, where are these people? GERALDINE (LIGHTFOOT) said that she was going to study this book. Between GERALDINE and KIRSCH (ph.) (ANTHONY KROCHMAREK) they have set themselves a goal of 2,000 non-Party sales. So far these two are leading the Party. They have taken 1,000 books. They are being sold in el stations, with signs hanging up in the stations. They are going out every single day hitting every district. "I" think we should get a brochure out. "I" want to sum up by saying "I" see this book as an instrument to the movement, a consolidation to the left and if we do not approach it in that manner we will be missing a very important opportunity.

Remarks of GEORGE MEYERS

There are over 500,000 Negroes in Baltimore and Washington alone, and we have 15 books and are unable to get anymore.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

"I" see that SPENCER (ph.), editor of the "Bombay ___", points out that the book has just happened to come out at the right time. "I" was thinking what would have happened if the book had been written two or three years ago. Well, in the first place the book would not have been written two or three years ago as we now have a new situation. "I" would like to suggest the setting up of a small committee to look at the whole question of what kind of capital is needed to put this sale on a big scale.

Remarks of MICKEY LIMA

Informant advised that LIMA commented, in referring to PAUL ROBESON said that ROBESON was having his first concert this weekend in a Negro church in Los Angeles (California) and said that a recent concert given in Northern California in the bay area was well planned and well received.

Remarks of Unknown Male

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, stated that he was going to be very objective in his remarks and would avoid a detailed discussion and wished only to go into general problems. This individual, in referring to PAUL ROBESON mentioned that through his singing, he has done his best work through the use of concerts, adding that the response to his singing in the past year and a half has been excellent. This individual stated that the main problem here is how the book is going to be used as a weapon of the movement, to get to the masses, the effect it (the book) has had on the masses along with the singing.

This individual said that he was frustrated in the sense that much of the "load" is being carried on by only a few, adding that there should be a general mobilization. He said that they are already in debt to the publisher in the amount of fifteen hundred dollars in the printing of the second edition. He said he would like to send a thousand books all over the country, adding that the impact of the book and the way it is to be used as a weapon is important.

According to the informant, the speaker referred to the problem of financial support, expressing the idea that possibly they could get money from people who have read the book.

Remarks of an Individual Believed To Be ROBERT THOMPSON

THOMPSON commented, in referring to ROBESON's book, saying that it deals with the Negro movement, but it has ramifications beyond that movement. THOMPSON expressed the thought that a large scale operation for the sale should be undertaken, commenting that a hundred thousand copies might be sold. He recommended that possibly a committee might be set up to give a full report upon the sale of the book.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

DENNIS stated that the subject and the message in the book is most important and it is necessary to consider the powerful political impact upon its readers, which he commented is aside from its economic importance. DENNIS said that every effort should be made in order that the book should "hit the top" throughout the country.

Remarks of ROBERT THOMPSON

THOMPSON proposed that the committee set up to handle the book (apparently sale of book) should consist of (JACK) STACHEL, (JIM) JACKSON, (ALEXANDER) TRACHTENBERG, LLOYD (BROWN?) and himself (THOMPSON).

Remarks of MICKEY LIMA

According to the informant, LIMA opened his remarks by stating that he did not know how well prepared he was to make the report. He opened his comments by referring to the coming California elections, contrasting the merits of Governor KNIGHT and that of Senator KNOWLAND. According to the informant, LIMA commented, in referring to Senator KNOWLAND, that he made his initial entree on the basis of a very bold and progressive program, which he described as his open identification with regard to the right to work laws. LIMA commented that at the time he (KNOWLAND) did this, it was thought in some circles that he had made a very serious mistake and that he had cut the ground out from beneath himself in terms of any possibility of defeating Governor KNIGHT, adding KNIGHT would be able to win the Republican primary "hands down."

LIMA pointed out that KNOWLAND's candidacy was a very calculated and bold move on the part of the right wing of the Republican Party. LIMA commented that the election in California has national significance and indicated that it presented a most serious threat both on the domestic and the international scene. LIMA also commented on the Democratic Party candidates in California and the advances made by the Democratic Party in California. He indicated that there was a rank and file upsurge in the Democratic Party and party clubs have developed which total about forty thousand members. He said that the club movement has shown considerable vigor and they battle in a very effective manner. In some ways, more effective^{than} in the past, in that they have learned how to maneuver between the politics and the people.

According to the informant, LIMA referred to the Democratic Convention (apparently in California), where they have effectively put forward a young Mexican American by the name of LOPEZ (ph). He said that in the rural areas in the last two elections, there has been a significant shift from the Republican Party to the Democratic Party, primarily because of the power and water issues. He commented that in the last two elections, there have been a good number of Democratic congressman, assemblymen and state senators elected, where previously the Republicans were in office. He said that state wide the Democratic Party is growing in the ranks as far as senators are concerned. He indicated that the labor movement could play an important part. He said that 40 per cent of the people of Los Angeles are in four congressional districts and the Democrats are in full control. Where 60 per cent of the remaining people live; there are 10 congressional districts. He indicated that the defeat of KNOWLAND is the overall task. He said that there has been a great deal of activity on the part of the labor movement. They have gotten out all kinds of material, held mass meetings in the San Francisco area. He indicated that a mass meeting was held by the Union Labor Party and the Central Labor Council, and the S.U.P. held a mass meeting in Local 42 (ph) and the Pollenary (ph) Workers have held an open mass meeting.

LIMA commented that the State Federation of Labor has been putting out a lot of material, but that the fact that the labor movement in California has in effect denied it, has resulted in political action forms.

Now, you have the State Federation of Labor putting out material, the San Francisco Union Labor Party putting out material, and in Alameda (ph) County, you have a united labor movement. He indicated that in Alameda County, they are organizing committees on area level and they have access to all the registry, AFL-CIO in that area. It has, of course, a very obvious significance in terms of the development of independence of political actions as far as labor is concerned and it is one that "we" should especially, in that area, pay a great deal of attention to, and to help ourself in this type of development.

According to the informant, LIMA indicated that one of the major weaknesses of the part of labor was that they have failed to raise the right to work in a given district towards the defeat of KNOWLAND. He said that the farm element should attack KNOWLAND on his restraint of trade with Red China and so forth. He said that labor has also failed to develop a stand on education, commenting that the rank and file group in California have attacked Dr. TELLER on his cold war attitude, while labor has not done anything in this regard.

In regard to Negro rights, the right to work issue has placed before the labor movement in a new way, the problems of the attitude of Negro workers and hence American workers toward the labor movement. He said that there are a group of Negro workers, who are aware of their needs now and are approaching the question from two points, one, from the class standpoint, to see what they can do to bring to the Negro citizen correct understanding of the right to work issue and two, how they can influence the labor to seek the right to work issue as the goal to break down discrimination.

Continuing, LIMA commented that he wanted to deal also with the question of independent political actions, adding

"we" want to enhance the development of political action among the people and in the labor movement, taking full advantage of the economic situation. The next thing "we" discussed was the holding of elections and forms of elections "we" felt that this election and the issues emerged there hold the possibility of the "left" playing a very important role. "We" also discussed forms for future expression for election. One was the possibility of influencing some kind of agency for "left" expression, which would be of a relative political character and this brought about a discussion on the role of the Party. A load of questions were raised as to whether or not we are paying enough attention to developing the type of form to make it possible and practicable so that the Party would be in its strictest role. "We" do not propose this as against the Party speaking out in its own right, but in addition to the Party speaking out in its own name, and in addition to the Party having its own candidate. "We" proposed, for example, the idea of setting up an anti-KNOWLAND committee that could throw together labor and Democrats and other people of a generally more advanced character. It would be a form that would not be permanent, a form that would be able to take on KNOWLAND in some of his more vulnerable ways, such as his anti-labor record and attitude. "We" have had discussions on this, both in the northern and southern part of the state.

Continuing, informant advised that LIMA then labor mentioned supporting [redacted] a school graduate and a person publicly identified as a Marxist, as a candidate for the Board of Education. [redacted] left us to decide for ourselves. So "we" decided to go ahead with it, since he [redacted] filed his candidacy. Several problems have come up regarding statements made in debate, but we hope to straighten this out. LIMA, in concluding his remarks, commented that he did not believe that "we" are taking full advantage of the situation in California.

Informant reported that following a short recess, EUGENE DENNIS asked LIMA several questions:

1. To what extent do you believe the program adopted by the state councils of the Party will attack the program especially adopted by the Democratic Party?
2. In regard to Congress, what do you see in the composition of it, Negro candidates, what about their views?
3. What about a shift between Democrats and Republicans. In your judgment, will there be any opposition to the Democratic Party regarding ANCHOR? (ph)
4. Have you any thoughts or views on a candidate for the United States Senate?

Remarks of MICKEY LIMA

According to the informant, LIMA commented with regard to the possibility of changes (Congressional districts?) there are two possible changes in the North. 1. VILLA (ph) is running for Congress in the 7th District in the East Bay. He is a friend of the laborer and of the labor movement. He is a good kind of candidate for that kind of area that is involved.

According to the informant, LIMA then mentioned an individual named MILLER (ph) who he characterized as a young "guy" who ran against SKUTTER (ph) and conducted a very vigorous campaign, but was defeated the last time by two or three thousand votes. Informant reported that LIMA also commented concerning other election possibilities in California, but the informant was not in a position to determine these comments. LIMA indicated that the election possibilities in California are more favorable than they were and said that BROWN (ph) will win the Democratic nomination.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

STACHEL stated that the Trotskyites have issued a major breakthrough against "us" in the United States. He stated that the Trotskyites have close to 15 thousand votes in New York City adding that most of them are not friends of the Soviet Union.

STACHEL stated that the Trotskyites in the eyes of the Party are immoral and corrupt. He concluded his remarks by commenting that with regard to youths, many things are going on in that field and "we" should have a report on that.

Remarks of an Individual Believed To Be GEORGE MORRIS

MORRIS stated that a lot of Communists today are reluctant to support the Democrats, but it is the lesser of two evils and KNOWLAND should be defeated at all costs.

According to the informant, DENNIS then inquired, "Are you through George?" GEORGE replied that he was, but said that one thing concerned him, that is the dissatisfaction on the part of the membership who say "oh yeah, support the Democrats", whereas the actual main thing is the defeat of the Republicans.

Remarks of an Unknown Male

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant, stated that in his opinion, the main thing "we" should concern ourselves with regard to the 1958 elections is how "we" are going to participate. "That should be our main objective. I don't give a damn what anyone says if KNOWLAND is defeated. It would be a tremendous victory for us. It would be something big for the politics of the country. Anything less than that lacks prospective as far as 1960 and 1962 is concerned. I think California should be given a so-called go ahead signal and do everything possible to defeat KNOWLAND." This individual stated that CP members should be able to realize a feeling of satisfaction from their work. It is true that through history this has been a two party country, but it does not have to remain so. The form "we" take in a political action campaign deals, to a great extent, the role "we" play in furthering the movement, as well. It works both ways. "We" made enough mistakes in 1948 to isolate ourselves. "With all good intentions, let us not make any similar mistakes."

NY 100-80641

Remarks of An Individual Possibly
ROBERT THOMPSON

THOMPSON commented that "we" share a common objective with other forces to defeat KNOWLAND, the difference between "our Party" and those forces is strictly that of perspective. "We" have not only the short term electoral outcome in mind, several long range aims, that is class struggle and so forth. What we do in an election campaign, such as this, we should always bear in mind are long range aims. THOMPSON indicated that because of the current economic crisis, he looks for some sharp splits in the Democratic Party. According to the informant, THOMPSON questions the advisability of setting up an anti-KNOWLAND committee independent of the Democratic Party, commenting that there is the danger that such an independent committee might take on various forms, and the Party would lose control of it. The individual believed to be THOMPSON also stated that he is dubious about the possibility of a third party with the Trotskyites, commenting that this would slow down the CP coalition movement.

Informant reported the individual concluded his remarks by commenting that he is looking forward to the day when the Party will be able to emerge as a Party and support its own candidates.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of an Individual Believed
Possibly BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr.

It is necessary for "us" to examine California (election) to a much greater extent in terms of background. California is the second highest electoral vote state in the country. There is a pretty much new community out there with respect to the workers in the factories. I say that in contrast to New York and the eastern seaboard, where political lines are much more settled and established. It seems to me that this makes a difference on how "we" approach the possibility of the "left" intermingling with the "right." The reactionary forces out there are not as cut and dried as they are in New York.

Another factor, perhaps not as important is that they have the Dodgers and the Giants (laughter). You have there Negro and Whites on the same team which will create a new atmosphere. There will be a certain amount of intergration at these games.

According to the informant DAVIS indicated that there is an opportunity for the "left" forces to be much bolder out there (California).

I think "our" next step should be far more independence on the part of American labor movement, even though it does not quite take the independent political action form. One of the things "I" would like to criticize along Party lines is that we are too general and abstract. "We" use terms such as leftist, progressive and monopoly. What do we mean? "We" have to define these terms. "We" also have to define the nature and character of the Negro people. What their relationship to the labor movement is. In "my" judgment, the labor movement does not understand them (Negroes). When Negroes give evidence of backing the Democratic Party, labor shies away from them. This has resulted in very serious differences between the labor movement and the Negro people. Unless "we" ourselves understand it, we are going to make some serious errors regarding the Negro people.

In this respect, "I" think the Party in Southern California has made a serious mistake in regard to HAROLD DE BACH (ph), who has shown overtones of anti-semitism at times. In 1960 I agree to an all out defeat of KNOWLAND. Now the question on the defeat of KNOWLAND will not be accomplished by slogans. It is not going to be done simply on the basis of vocalizing. It will be done only to the extent that issues emerge sharply.

"I" think our impression of the right to work law has great impact among the Negroes and reaching the Negroes with this campaign is very important. In Ohio, the Catholic Church on the same basis has taken a position against the right to work law. Now this is an important development. So "I" do not think it is far-fetched if we take the issues on which KNOWLAND has chosen.

The informant advised that DAVIS then discussed the economic situation, saying that the City Council of Youngstown (Ohio) similarly passed legislation calling on the governor to release money and the City Council of Cleveland (Ohio) similarly passed a resolution to that effect. Now what happens is that you start something that you don't see in a long time, the steel workers crowd the council chambers. So, you see, the economic question has become very important. I know in our area and in other areas, workers automatically associate the Republicans with depression.

Continuation of BEN DAVIS's Remarks

Informant advised that DAVIS stated he felt that the defeat of Senator KNOWLAND was of national importance. He indicated that this could not be done on any "wishy-washy" basis and thought that an effective means would be basic issues such as the right to work, relief, economic issue and so forth.

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

LIGHTFOOT indicated that the defeat of Senator KNOWLAND would be on the basic issues previously raised and to defeat him would require work.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

"I" am one of those who consider that the California (elections ?) and the defeat of KNOWLAND is absolutely sound. "I" would also say without hesitation that "we" need an all-out effort to defeat KNOWLAND and what he stands for, and its not just the individual; let's not forget the responsibility of the Administration in which he will compete for his candidacy. Let's not forget KNOWLAND's role in prohibiting trade with Yugoslavia and Poland and other countries. This is a typical example of his attitude. "I" think what "we" should work for is to defeat him (KNOWLAND) in such a way that labor and her allies are going to merge stronger. One thing "we" may have overlooked is that KNOWLAND has considerable strength amongst the Negro people.

In this connection, "I" think "we" should stress the responsibility of the labor movement, the right to work issue, and so forth.

Informant advised that DENNIS also mentioned there should be close supervision of the elections in the South, adding that he did not know what the possibilities were, but they should be looked into, that is, some partison development between the Negro, Mexican and American workers. This would make the possibility of issues and the breaking through of a host of candidates move in a closer direction of labor. DENNIS stated that "he" is against an Independent Political Action Group.

Continuing, DENNIS stated that "we" should be second to none in propaganda to force the right to work. "I" think "we" have to carry on the necessary explanatory work first, not only the propaganda to establish independent political action.

DENNIS commented that the Dixiecrat question goes right to the heart of the Democratic Party. "We" must move slowly, both politically and ideologically, in Washington and New York against this whole concept of the united socialist movement. HY LUMER states that the fact is we are going through a certain process of evolution with regard to today's Progressive Party, where the whole concept of the Progressive Party itself is under change and it has changed from a mass third party movement to a movement which was controlled by a certain group from the left, which was small and was looking for some such means of expression. This group is easily misled by the phony programs of the other parties. "I" think "our line" should deal much more with the economic situation than the political. It is much more realistic because of the present situation. DENNIS added that the Democratic Party has come forward and stated that the main question in the November elections will be the economic situation or jobs. The labor movement, meanwhile, has dealt with the situation mainly from the immediate legislative program as in the Washington Conference.

The labor movement has been interested in the right to work question rather than economic questions, but does not put these questions in the right order. In regard to the Taft-Hartley Act, a large segment of labor does not see its true significance and can be led to believe that it is in their own best interest, such as when TAFT was able to go into a labor stronghold like Toledo, Ohio, and was able to convince a large segment of labor that it would help them, and he was able to carry Toledo by a large majority.

"We" should not conclude that the workers can see through this right to work legislation, especially in view of the allegations of corruption in labor. The workers can see more clearly the economic situation. "We" must take a fresh look at the whole picture in light of the economic development and the way it affects us.

Unknown Male

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, stated "we" are discussing the economic situation in terms of the labor movement and ~~an~~ understanding of it. Already the effect of the economic situation is beginning to give indications of their effect on the peace issue, on the stand of the Democratic Party in the labor movement. It creates a new situation in the development of the fight for peace and the reallignment taking place.

On the other aspect, agreement can be reached on a platform by the socialists that will unite all the California socialists away from the Democratic and Republican Parties.

Informant reported that EUGENE DENNIS, who was acting as Chairman, proposed that they accept the main line of the report and after asking if there were any objections, of which there were none, DENNIS stated "so ordered."

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

PATTERSON stated he wanted to give the picture of the situation at the present time. The paper ("The Worker") is in poor health; the staff has been reduced to the minimum. There is not one comrade there who is not working vigorously to augment the staff by contacts on the outside, and "we" are working together. For example, three of us met today; there is a man who knows newspapers who is sympathetic, who is going to help us. Despite this, there are things which bear considerable thought.

Informant advised that PATTERSON then discussed the drive underway for new subscribers to the paper, stating that the drive started in January with a total of 39 new subscribers from outside of New York, and a total of 80 in New York. When "we" add this to the sums "we" had on January 1, it gave us a total of 889. It fell the week of March 3, as contrasted to the other week where we got in New York 200, which made out total at that time 1,080. The week ending the 17th, "we" reached a total of 1,309. The total for the entire country is now 1,701.

"I" want to show you what this means as it does not present a satisfactory picture. He stated the drive was for 9,000 subscriptions to be completed by May 1. "We" have now 1,701 and we need 7,300 new subscriptions in one month and this is going to be a most difficult job.

These figures do not represent all new readers. They represent only 10 per cent new readers, the remainder are renewals and lapsed readers. PATTERSON stated that in Wisconsin "our council" went out in the farming area and in a short time, brought in 36 subscriptions, 16 of them new people. It shows how eager they were to get "The Worker" and to see the picture "we" are painting of peace, unemployment, etc. As "we" look over these figures "we" see an unevenness throughout the country. The leading state in the country is Illinois, with 339 new subscriptions. The quota is 4,000 for the country and 5,000 in New York.

"I" sent out a letter to all parts of the country asking them to set a quota for themselves, but no replies have come in. "We," therefore, set a quota for certain districts and tried to distribute it proportionately in line with what they could perform. Unless there is tremendous pressure on our comrades, the possibility is that more than 50 per cent of the drive will fail.

The financial situation in which we have been working has been extremely critical. "I" have never seen a more difficult situation. "We" are operating now with an expenditure of $2,500 per week approximately. "We" are taking in about $1,000 and are, therefore, operating at a deficit of $1,500. "We" have not been receiving regularly from our National and State offices a sufficient amount to meet this deficit. In fact, if the New York district had not given us money through most strenuous efforts, to enable us to reach the printer, some weeks we would not have been able to come out. This is a picture of some of the necessary expenditures:

Payroll, $975.58; printer, $220.40; composition and make-up man, $480.00; carriers (to newspapers), deficit of $35.00 a week for the past three weeks. Other expenses, such as rent and the like brings the total to about $2,500 per week.

"We" have been going to the districts to find out if

"bundles" are being paid for, and so forth. Illinois owes "us" a couple of thousand dollars, Detroit owes "us" much more than a couple of thousand dollars, and other districts owe "us" a comparable amount. This shows that the districts do not regard this (the paper) as a business matter; they react as though "the paper was run by a philanthropist."

Now, comrades, "I" want to mention a number of ways we can augment the income. "We" are already planning the May Day affair here at Carnegie Hall and are establishing a committee for a full time worker. "We" have sent out a letter to everyone of those who have allowed their subscriptions to run out. "We" have sent out to every district a list of subscribers who have lapsed from 1955-1957. "We" have called for meetings in many cities around May Day on behalf of "The Worker." Chicago and Detroit have responded. This means that comrades in every district must assume the responsibility to get means from every possible source. Philadelphia has shown no appreciable gain in new subscribers; New York has 674 new subscribers; Boston, 185. This is the picture that confronts us. Up to now, "we" have been able to meet our expenses to a great extent because of both the National Office and the districts. It means that "we" must put on a tremendous drive between now and May Day.

Unknown Male

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, stated that "we" should not set a quota of 5,000 if "we" can only get 3,000. Let's set it at a figure we can reach.

Remarks of Individual Believed To Be ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN

FLYNN stated she was disturbed about the number of subscriptions and that she realizes the comrades have other duties that come first, but the results so far are a disgrace.

Remarks of an Individual Believed To Be BILL ALBERTSON

There are a number of things to consider. There are small groups of members who are against the paper. Then "we" have had these series of resignations within the last month.

NY 100-80641

Resignations down below - section organizers - which tends to give a certain demoralization and makes it difficult to get new subscribers. Just in the last month, for example, "we" have had resignations in industry of three regional organizers, and one complete regional leadership. Now, not a penny has come in from these regions for the paper in the past six months.

What "I" think is necessary is for some committee here to sit down and consider what are the needs of the National Office; what are the needs of the paper, and establish a serious, realizable, national objective in which the states and lower echelon can add their own particular objectives and form a national fund drive on May 1. It has been decided, in discussion in New York, that on this annual fund drive, it is to be conducted with a two month high-point of May and June. Summer months are greatly reduced and it is impossible to start a drive on Labor Day. ALBERTSON suggested possibly appointing someone as a fund drive organizer.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

New York's quota, by the way, is only 4,000, not 5,000 (subscriptions). If "we" can get 2,500 out of the 4,000 quota in New York, we will get over 60 per cent of the quota. Now, out of town, the quota is 5,000, but actually nobody expects 5,000 as we only have four populated districts. In my opinion, it is possible to get a minimum of 2,500 out of town and in other words, you can aim at a total of 5,000 subscribers. That would show some results. That is a realistic goal, even if the figures are what they are now. That means that New York will need 2,000 within the next month, or 500 a week; that is not impossible in New York.

Chicago, we know, will get their quota; they are working and have a committee. A certain number of smaller districts will also get their quota, like Minnesota. "I" think Wisconsin has a good start, and whether you like it or not, Connecticut now stands out here as 32 per cent, while Cleveland stands out at 5 per cent, Indiana at 4 per cent, Eastern Pennsylvania at 4 per cent, and New Jersey 9 per cent, New England 6 per cent. "We" know that comrades in Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania are going to tackle it, and if they need help, we will give them help. In New England, as a matter of fact, three weeks ago they hadn't even started to talk about "The Worker." In my opinion, we are confronted with a problem in Connecticut and New England, and we may actually have to send in organizers in that territory.

"I" think in spite of all our grievances, we have a good chance of closing this drive in May with 5,000 subscriptions. "I" think we should aim at 5,000 in the drive and then decide whether to extend it, and then guarantee the finances of the paper, if necessary.

Remarks of Unknown Male from Ohio

An individual, whose identity was unknown to the informant, but believed to be from the Ohio area, stated that "The Worker" will be getting subscriptions from his district; however, because of Smith Act trials and unemployment, we have been kept extremely busy. "We" are going to start a push, and there is a new attitude, a new response to "The Worker," a new feeling of responsibility in "The Worker." "We" are mobilizing now for its success.

The financial problem is very big for us out there. Youngstown (Ohio), an unemployed area, costs us a lot to distribute.

Individual Believed To Be BEN DAVIS

"We" in New York realize that the Party organization is expensive. "We" face a very serious financial situation, especially so in the National Office; so you see, there is a very immediate need for the drive. The need is so bad that the people downstairs wanted the drive to end April 15 instead of May 1. Also, "we" have been faced with the problem that some of the comrades wanted to go on a political strike against the Party. "We" must have a different approach to these districts as to why they do not do as they are supposed to do. You must carry out the Party's demands, you must concretely implement the right of the Party to lead the Party.

Maybe "I" am reopening old wounds, but we have a situation, we have to pull together, we have got to fight together. And that goes for the ultra-left too. Our Party expects and must guarantee that this situation does not happen again. This we must be united on. "We" must convey to the Party and to the sympathizers of the Party that this is a temporary situation. "We" must find a way not to let pass such outlandish stories as appeared in the "Times" ("New York Times") concerning some millions of dollars the Party had and that we have inexhaustible funds. "We" have to end it.

Remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON

PATTERSON defended the setting of a specific goal such as 5,000 subscriptions. He explained that this goal gives the comrades an incentive; however, if they do not want it, it can be dropped in future drives. He indicated that the drive should be extended to June 1.

"I" have attended three different meetings today and one with Carnegie Hall. "I" have a lot of leg work and don't even have a secretary. Informant advised that unidentified individual interrupted PATTERSON asking "what did they want at Carnegie Hall?" PATTERSON retorted that they, Carnegie Hall, want the program at least ten days or a week ahead of time, adding "it was obvious that he was being required to take this step."

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

When "we" break down "The Worker" drive, "we" find that some comrades and others are not subscribing, not because of Communist political lines, but because of the disorganized figures of the Party. The situation is uniform, that is taking them away. We have 1,800 subscriptions for the whole of the Party and it does not reflect any one viewpoint. "We" can fight the goals of JOHN GATES or the goals of FRED FINE and SID STEIN from now until doomsday, but you have to show a certain amount of respect for these people in order for us to get along.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

EUGENE DENNIS stated "How about motions?" "The motion is that the subscription price remain $3.50, any objections?" DENNIS then stated, "The motion is carried due to lack of objections." "We" adjourn and reconvene at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.

NY 100-80641

SECOND DAY SESSION, MARCH 29, 1958Remarks of GEORGE MORRIS

Informant advised that MORRIS opened his remarks by referring to the recent AFL-CIO conference held in Washington, D. C. MORRIS stated that the keynote speech was given by MEANEY (GEORGE), followed by a speech by MITCHELL (JAMES P.) and then GRISWALD (phonetic). He said that REUTHER (WALTER) was the main "arbiter." MORRIS referred to the eight major points advanced (apparently at conference):

- (1) Unemployment insurance.
- (2) A cut in taxes
- (3) Public works
- (4) Housing program
- (5) A school construction program
- (6) An improvement in the Social Security System
- (7) A movement for the totally distressed areas
- (8) Minimum wage.

Continuing, MORRIS stated that the program also included a visit by a delegation headed by MEANEY (GEORGE) to President EISENHOWER. Informant stated that MORRIS also referred to a letter which was a very angry indictment of capitalism, and he (MEANEY?) gave a very dismal picture of things in America today. The keynote of his whole remarks was that the country is in an alarmed situation today, but there is no alarm in watching it, the watching has to be awakened. Continuing, MORRIS, apparently referring to MEANEY's speech, also commented on the need for an increase in unemployment insurance, as well as an extension of unemployment insurance. He (MEANEY ?) singled out those things (eight major points) as items that were needed immediately in order to put "purchasing power" in the pockets of the people.

Informant further advised that MORRIS stated that it was interesting that "Pravda" ran the whole speech of GEORGE MEANEY and took about a full page. MORRIS stated that he had checked the text ("Pravda"?) regarding a special paragraph directed against the Soviet Union. Continuing, MORRIS said that he (MEANEY) gave a speech that was an indictment of capitalism today and a very angry denunciation of those in power for doing nothing in face of the situation.

MORRIS also stated that MITCHELL (JAMES P.), who followed MEANEY, took up this theme, that is, a movement that has political push. He (MITCHELL) said that he agreed with MEANEY that things have to be done to push purchasing power immediately.

MORRIS said that in his opinion only MEANEY's speech made much of an impression. He commented that the delegations received a fine response on the reports. "They" reported that many of the Republicans (?) were very cordial and had good response from then on many of the questions, which in the past, Republicans were opposed to.

MORRIS stated that he (MORRIS) did not believe that labor went far enough on taxes. MORRIS stated that in his opinion what was missing from the conference was that it was not a conference where people could bring up the more direct meanings, such as relief conditions that are becoming more and more serious, the question of the moratorium on debt. There was also nothing on a shorter work week. There again is where "I" (MORRIS) think progressives should stress most of all (shorter work week). There was no reference to trade at all and part of the Government report shows that unemployment among non-whites is more than twice that among the whites. Nothing was said of it at the conference. No reference was made to discrimination, either in hiring or firing. The conference also gave very clear evidence that the leadership of REUTHER is very much "disoriented."

Continuing, MORRIS commented that there was much talk about decreasing of taxes, licking unemployment, starting public works immediately. Then the speakers always came down to the solemn moment in their speeches when they took a deep breath and said, "If we don't do something about this situation, then what can happen to uncommitted labor?" MORRIS said that there were two other interesting speeches, one was REUTHER's (WALTER) and the other MC DONALD (possibly DAVID REUTHER said, "Nothing will harm you." He stressed the need to use our vast resources to help the uncommitted. He asked how come "America is so eager to do a job for war?" He (REUTHER) said in time of war, "they even brought the grandmothers out." MORRIS commented this was his windup. JR.)

MORRIS said, in referring to MC DONALD's speech, that it was worse than any. He pointed out that there were "214,000 unemployed and 367,000 part-time (unemployed) in the Metal Workers." MC DONALD said that we are not meeting here to discover that the economy is in serious trouble, we want to hear what you, the Government, is going to do to assist us. "He (MC DONALD) urged constantly, Democratic action."

MORRIS stated (apparently still referring to MC DONALD's speech), that one of the big things was that there was a growing conviction that military expenditures won't make for prosperity. The realization that "we" have lived under that type of economy quite a number of years has not stopped. MORRIS then referred to the opening remarks of an unnamed Senator to the effect that the country has had eight crises in the past forty years, and the only intense ones were 1921, the HOOVER crisis, and 1937. MORRIS said that the conference manifested itself with the fact that today unions are not the friends of the unemployed, and that was the most important thing of the conference. He said that "we" have here a downtrend of capitalism and an emphatic upspring of socialism, and these two things are fair rewards. "I" (MORRIS) think opportunities will be greater and indicated advancement could be made if they could break out of their isolation. He indicated that a variety of activities could be undertaken in such a period as today, because people are becoming more active and are beginning to arrange meetings to take up the problems of union members and unemployment program. "We" have been lackadaisical. You have the problem of organizing unemployment organizations or unemployment activities in communities. "Our" problem is to develop community type organizations and he referred specifically to the suicide in New York of RODRIQUEZ (phonetic).

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

LIGHTFOOT stated that the first problem was that of policy and said they must demonstrate more policy and to mobilize to show people how to do it. He said that the Negro field presents a favorable opportunity. "I", for one, have been hanging in the air in many discussions we've had on our ability to analyze the situation. "We" know how to analyze. My only doubt is whether we can develop a program. LIGHTFOOT indicated that what they needed was a springboard for activity. He referred to the Negro Labor Relations Committee, which is the sponsor of the "Crusader" newspaper, who are picketing the First National Bank on the basis of jobs in the bank. He said the NLRC in Chicago is attempting to get jobs in the higher echelons and in the department stores. He said that notwithstanding the weakness of "Party organization," they are already at work and are putting forth initiative. He said this is possible because they had a base. He indicated that a base to work is most important. "We" should take ten or fifteen places in the country and concentrate the next few years on them. Then working from these bases, people are going to know. This will create a springboard in labor movement to take up where we used to be through the left unions, where we were in the CIO.

Continuing, informant advised that LIGHTFOOT also spoke on the question of leadership in organization, saying that he (LIGHTFOOT) saw no need for a labor secretary, but rather a need for leadership in all parts of concentration. He said to develop an industrial program is all right, but to have nothing below does not mean much.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of Individual Believed to be
ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

He stated that there were a lot of former Party people in the trade union movement, and with regard to leadership, "we" have to take note of things like the resignations in California, "which is very painful." He indicated that things were moving very fast. "We" can see the impact of the Party's role in the trade union movement, especially in the lower level. You have a large number of people who had been associated with "us" and not associated with "us." He indicated that there was a new attitude in the trade union movement toward the Party, a new friendliness and a new respect for the Party. This is found among workers generally and "they" want to know what they are supposed to do.

According to the informant, KRCHMAREK pointed out as an example activity in the building trade union where "they" (Party) got much help from non-Party "guys." In fact, one "guy" said if this is the way the Party works, I want to join the Party. KRCHMAREK stated that this individual has not joined the Party as yet but he felt that he would.

He stated that in the Steel Workers they got excellent response to material that was sent out, indicating that the first responses were from the unemployed. He suggested that a series of leaflets be put out and the first leaflet could be on the question of armaments. He indicated that this type of work is the role of our Party, that is, the supporting of different issues like the increase in unemployment insurance. He stated that they should not underestimate the working class, saying that when they get such a demand and such a response, it means the workers appreciate and recognize the role that the Party has played. They don't do this just for fun. There is a very definite reason for it and some of these guys occupy quite high positions and they are not "our people," never have been. In fact, it is only the last year and a half that "we" ever got relations with them.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be GEORGE MEYERS

"I" have made observations on the susceptibility of certain people in the labor movement. In Maryland, there is also a susceptibility of some non-Party people in the labor movement to ideas of the Party. They are not "our people" but are people who are willing to discuss problems with us. The paper ("The Worker" ?) gets good reception from these people. Former comrades who were in the party in the late 1940's and early 1950's now want to set up clubs in industry and get going again.

"I" think there is a vast uneasiness among the working class concerning capitalist control of the wage. As one of the fellows in industry, a male worker, said, "they" do not want to join the Party but would like to meet someone who is beating at these S.O.B.'s. Continuing, MEYERS stated that they are organizing a partnership (?) based on an economic situation. These are the things we have to drive home in our agitation campaign, such as the right of every man, woman and child to proper food, clothing, medical care, etc., regardless of whether jobs are available or not. He commented that sometimes a lot of talk goes on, such as, "they" do not want a job, they could not get a job anyhow, they wouldn't want to work, etc. Sometimes this is said of the Negro people in our area (Maryland). "I" think we have to drive that home and keep driving it until our program is realized. "We" can make this demand and it is not 'up in the sky."

"I" agree with GEORGE (MORRIS) that the program presented is a real live proposal on the part of labor. "We" can extend this a little, such as the question of a shorter work week. We have to "drive home" that there is no need for anyone in this country suffering because of their inability to get a job. Congress can't just make jobs by throwing all the money in war machines.

Remarks of MICKEY LIMA

"I" do not think "we" have as yet caught up with the labor movement, some of our contributions, for example. AL (RICHMOND ?) gave a report on labor movement in terms of periods of labor legislation in periods of depression. This is a special supplement "we" are going to get out on the effects of right to work and the economic situation of the Negro workers. Maybe "we" will have fifty or one hundred copies sent out to key workers in industry. Now, in the last economic decline, "we" find that AL (RICHMOND ?) wrote an article under the pen name MORTON (phonetic) and "we" used the address of the Pacific Publishers Foundation, which is really the "People's World." "We" got direct orders from all kinds of unions, those which we never had any access to before.

According to the informant, LIMA indicated that they were doing additional research on HY's (LUMER) economic report. He said that they must begin a defense of the labor movement and to explain the whole situation so far as the labor movement is concerned.

Remarks of BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, JR.

As far as New York is concerned, it is a case of nothing developed. "I" cannot emphasize too strongly the problems which still exist in the Party and the necessity for straightening out the confusion and mess. "I" do not put this forward as an excuse. DAVIS indicated that the problem is the economic struggle and the need to pull them out of categories of generalities. He said that the problem in New York is a special problem. This is especially true in Negro and Puerto Rican communities. "We" have some complications with the Puerto Ricans because most of the "spirited cadre" have been more or less associated with some leaders of the ultra left. The result has been some isolation with important Puerto Rican cadre.

DAVIS stated that something new has been happening in the Party, especially with the experiences of CLAUDE (LIGHTFOOT) and KIRSH (Phonetic)(possibly ANTHONY KRCHMAREK), experiences which indicate that the Party is beginning to deal with this and "we" cannot speak in the "old negative sing-song way." In this connection, it seems to "me," to be extremely important that, as leaders of the Party, we recognize the positive aspects of what our Party has done.

According to the informant, DAVIS then referred to the California statement, which he said was based on an assumption of the complete isolation of the Party because most of the Party members do not know what the Party has been doing. It is not enough, in my judgment, for us to have an occasional article in PA (Political Affairs), an occasional article in "The Worker," and so on. "We" must find a way to get this information to the Party organization on a national scale and thus block this isolation argument. "I" think we have reached a point when the question of building the resources of "The Worker" must be applied solely to the renewal (of subs).

DAVIS commented that the building of subs depends upon the degree in which the Party engages in mass activities, and to the degree which the whole personnel of the Party needs "The Worker."

Remarks of HY LUMER

According to the informant, LUMER commented generally about the pending legislation in Congress. He commented that in 1954 a tax cut was given to the corporations instead of the workers, which, in effect, bolstered the purchasing power of investment capital rather than workers. LUMER commented that at the next meeting of the Economic Committee, they should take up the question of the economic discussion and taxes. "I" think "we" need to give a little attention to the tariff question, as an issue, and how it relates to position of East-West trade. "We" have the Economic Committee functioning now and meeting regularly. LUMER stated that consideration should be given to writing articles in "The Worker" regarding such questions as, "Why do prices keep rising," "What is the effect of automation," and so forth.

He stated that with regard to the Party program, they have undergone a great deal of rewriting and revision, which, though not perfect, is as close as "we" can come to satisfying a great many different views. ART SHIELDS is working on a pamphlet regarding the AFL situation.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

- STACHEL stated that KHRUSHCHEV had a comment about the so-called American reception to the effect that trade with Soviet countries would ease the recession, as well as the depression. STACHEL commented that the situation in 1958 is not as it was in 1929 or 1930. The situation is a different kind of crisis. We have a different labor movement, which is very positive. The working class of the United States is not all backward, whereas before, you had the mass of workers bound to companies and company unions which were not organized.

STACHEL indicated that what has to be done is to give some thinking along the lines of keeping the masses and how to get out of the crisis.

In other words, if we think along these lines, "we" will meet not only the challenges we have received, but the certain challenge contained in the "so-called manifesto" of those who resigned yesterday (apparently referring to people in California who left CP). According to the informant, STACHEL concluded his remarks by saying that this is a situation which should bring us together.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of Unknown Male, Possibly JAMES JACKSON

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant commented that he wanted to emphasize one point which was elaborated on by CLAUDE (LIGHTFOOT); namely, "how." This individual then referred to certain experiences encountered in southern work. He stated that in the south, the Party, 25 years back, played the "premier role" regarding the welfare concept of the unemployed. The south had no welfare program and a handful of Party people organized the unemployment movement. In the south, there have been key changes in this 25-year period, from the standpoint of legislation, at the city, county and state level, inadequate as it is. There have been changes in the attitude of the population to the degree of their sensitivity to this question.

Now in the south, the labor movement generally is ill-equipped to play any substantial role in behalf of the struggle of the unemployed. The south as a whole is 15 per cent organized. In certain localities, for example Houston (Texas), you have the unusual picture of a very relatively advanced trade union movement, not only union, but civic consciousness. There are some exceptional activities being initiated in reference to the problems of the unemployed by the trade union councils.

But, in the main, the southern picture presents itself, outside of Houston, Birmingham and one or two others, where the trade unions are in poor condition to take up the question of the unemployed, but that does not mean that there is not other avenues. For example, in the Negro communities of the south, you have the new phenomena of established Negro organizations like the Urban League and the NAACP. Organizationally, they are in a much stronger position than ever before. Also, the Negro churches have undergone a big development in their own social consciousness.

I mention the south because some four states in the south have a proportion of urban unemployment that is twice that of the national average. Three southern states have industrial unemployment less than the national average. They are Texas, Florida and Virginia. Some states have almost double that of the national average. This is reflected in the last six month period by migration of 600,000 (people).

Now, a long line of desperate agitators sought to stimulate a revival of interest in the trade union movement on the question of some concerted organizing effort in the south. This doesn't mean that the Party is frowned upon, even in places where the trade unions are not prepared to act on the unemployment question, because there are vehicles and established organizations in which "our people" have begun to find the field to work. It becomes a task for a group of comrades working in one or another of these organizations, churches, to establish councils of welfare and the problems of unemployed. Now one or another of these institutions can initiate citywide or countywide conferences on the problems of the unemployed, which, in turn, will stimulate what minimum capacities the very weak trade union movement has in a number of communities in the south.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

"I" move that in addition to the program we have already set forth, that is, in our legislative program.... the question should be raised, figuratively speaking, in the State of New York, that the AFL-CIO go out and get a million signatures in one month's time. "We" could propose to pledge to collect a minimum of 10 per cent of the million signatures on a petition to have when Congress reconvenes shortly after its recess (Easter recess ?) to get something moving on this big issue.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of ROBERT THOMPSON

Informant advised that THOMPSON opened his comments by referring to Mexico and commenting about an unnamed individual, said this individual thought this would be an opportunity for a struggle over the right of passport. THOMPSON said he was opposed to it on two grounds; first, political, since this is the eve of the Mexican elections; and secondly, "I" am opposed to inviting any secondary diversionary new struggle on passport issues. You have passport issues enough here on the question of ROBESON and others. The question of international solidarity might be served much better in terms of the situation in Cuba and on some action relative to that score. It does not seem to be a very responsible proposal to me and "I" want to register my opposition to it, and "I" think it should be reviewed.

Continuing, the informant advised that THOMPSON also discussed the activities of individuals outside the Party who, he said, are attempting to exploit in a new way the Party's problems. He indicated that this stemmed from the way the "Times" ("New York Times") and the rest of the capitalist press interpreted the outcome of the National Committee meeting; such as, the affairs of the Party were in the hands of a bunch of Moscow-controlled revolutionists. "We" have also the line that is developed that the Party is now back in the hands of the Stalinists. Then, of course, "we" have the big play that has been given the HOOVER book, (apparently referring to J. EDGAR HOOVER's book, "Masters of Deceit") attacking the Party.

At the same time, certain forces (once associated with the Party ?) have also revolted. This takes the form, first of all, of these concerted resignations throughout the Party. Most of the resignations have taken place in the New York organization, which included three officers, three or four weeks ago, as well as the organizers of a number of sections.

"We" have the complication of the Jewish views - - the Jewish comrades led (?) a very spirited onslaught against the Soviet Union. Now "we" have the "germs" of this California statement, resignations not only from posts, but considerable resignations from the Party. It seems to me that this is a move in the direction of the kind of thing that was pulled (?) by the New York leadership of STEIN (phonetic) (possibly SID STEIN) in an organized effort to pull forces out of the Party.

Informant advised that THOMPSON also spoke of the right tendencies in the Party exerting pressures. On the other hand, you have the comrades that argue along the lines that the right danger has disappeared and it is no longer necessary to continue the struggle against that political ideology. At the same time, "I" think "we" should note that the basic position of the Party has steadily improved. This has come from a strengthening and clarification of the Party's policies from top to bottom. The resolving of the present key questions in respect to the Party: It also has been strengthened by the fact that the Party has handled, is handling, the economic question.

Now, on the opposite side of the political (situation?), there is the left group within the Party. There has been, "I" believe, a - leftist move - in the Party, together with a type of activity in certain organized groups in Chicago and in New York. "We" should understand that the last committee meeting opposed these leftist (groups).

The National Committee centered the Party's position and ability to deal with these things. "They" did it by making some progress in overcoming the former paralysis in the National leadership, by taking away from them what was their strongest political power. Secondly, we have the problem of certain factionally organized left wing groups which involve only a relatively small and narrow segment of the Party membership in given areas. We must see both sides of this problem.

According to the informant, THOMPSON also discussed the question of Negro work, indicating that the working class needs to play a larger share in the leadership of the Negro peoples movement. In the fight for peace, you have the need for the linking of the fight for peace with the struggle on the economic issues. Among the issues affected by the fight for peace is the foreign policy. You have the very peculiar emergence of the "left" in anti-Soviet groups, taking form in attacks on KHRUSHCHEV (apparently NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV), contending that STALIN was right and that KHRUSHCHEV is departing from the path of true Marxist-Stalinist. Most of the elements affected by the leftist groups and tendencies insist that the vanguard roles of the Party be developed in complete disregard for the position in the trade union movement and the world peace movement.

- 11 -

The existence of the vanguard role of the Party must be exerted very much along the lines of the fight on the old Scottsboro cases, where the Party was in direct political and organizational leadership in the fight.

Among the more practical aspects of the comrades influenced by these tendencies, we also find the new theories arising with respect to the questions of anti(?)-centralism of the Party. "We" feel first that democratic centralism is necessary for the Marxist forces in America today and that it must be applied as LENIN applied it in 1903, 1904 and 1905, at the time when the social democrats in the Soviet Union were organized in the struggle between the Bolsheviks and the -----.

"I" think "we" must very boldly take on these factionalists. "We" will have to move in where these factional movements have gained a measure of organizational control and have tried to "box-off" sections of the membership from the regularly elected leaders of the Party. "We" have to move in to sections of Chicago, Lower Harlem, the waterfront section of New York. "We" have got to find position and we have got to enforce it.

At the same time that we do this, "we" have to take some measures against the rampant factionalism and we will have to take organizational measures as well. "What are some of these differences?" Well, you have the KELLER (phonetic) group in Chicago - nothing much has changed since the time of the last committee meeting, with the authority still in the hands of revisionists. You also have there in Chicago, the SAUNDERS-JONES (phonetic) tendency, which is now under quite sharp attack from the other colored faction. Now, of course, "our Party" has no intention of finding a compromise, to the policies and ideologies of the SAUNDERS-JONES (phonetic) faction, but that does not mean that "we" should not utilize this division within their ranks and exploit it and "muss up" this group. It does not mean that there are not a number of Communists who are not involved in the factionalist groupings, one way or another, who cannot be won over. These factional groupings are small, hard-core factional groups.

For example, we have to get into that Indiana State. In New York, "we" have a different type. Here, you have the [redacted] forces, who are much less sophisticated than the -- SAUNDERS (phonetic) (group). The Illinois forces are engaged in the same way, mostly boycotts. "I" think that here in New York, it is complicated by the fact that this (group) is strong, where the Party is weak, particularly in the Puerto Rican (group?). Here, a decisive struggle against these forces has developed Party mass work among the Spanish people. Together with this, there is the fact that this group has certain sympathizers among our Negro membership, arising, in the first place, from dissatisfaction with activities in relation to problems of the Negro people.

b6

Informant advised that THOMPSON indicated there were similar tendencies in the West Coast and in New Jersey. He said that trips were being made into Wisconsin and in Minnesota, and probably elsewhere, of which we have no knowledge. Now, this is in respect to some of these factional activities. "We" must develop a certain approach to the responsibilities of leadership. Responsibility rests with members of the committee and when that committee decides on policy, then no longer (can we) operate against that committee.

"We" have to verify certain Party concepts, for example, the trust and results. Certain members go around the country to mobilize a defense of the policy of the Party. There is confusion on this policy of the Party and we must establish clarity and procedure. "We" must also establish a proposition in respect to procedure, where "we" do not have CHARLIE LOMAN running into New Jersey to a conference of the county-state leadership of the Party, which CHARLIE (LOMAN) knows nothing about; where we do not have MANNIE (phonetic) (possibly EMANUEL BLUM) "running wild" in Chicago as if there was no state leadership in that area. These kind of questions "we" can and must begin to put within the framework of the general political ideologies, so we do not confuse certain organizational levels and members.

Now, one thing with respect to the left, which "I" think you know about. That is, they have something in common with the right. First of all, they are both banking on the Party situation going from bad to worse. This is where their future lies; this is what they are banking on; this is the fact out of which arises the common attitude of sabotage of the Party's activities, efforts to demoralize the Party. They both have the refusal to enter into mass activities of the Party. "I" think we should approach this problem with justified confidence in our ability, and justified confidence backed by the fact that the Party's position has been strengthened and will be strengthened further as the Party's mass work begins to unfold.

- 13 -

With regard to Brooklyn, my estimate, and "I" agree with the New York State leadership, is that Brooklyn falls in the category of dissatisfaction with the leadership; falls in the category of comrades seriously influenced by certain leftist moves. The cadre there is a good portion Negro comrades and are influenced by certain mass factors.

Informant advised that in answer to a query, THOMPSON indicated that the struggle against the Brooklyn leadership and the membership is not the same situation as in Chicago, where the main part is factional.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

Comrades, I do not want to speak, I merely want to put a document into exhibit so that the comrades from out of town can see it. One of our comrades in Harlem gave me this document put out by HARRY HAYWOOD. The theme of it is the revolutionary position of the Negro and it is 47 pages long.

Remarks of GEORGE MEYERS

According to the informant, MEYERS commented concerning the leftist position in the Party, adding that the first thing to be on guard against, as far as he could see, is this leftist view and concepts. He stated that DOROTHY ROSE BLUMBERG had been down to see her mother recently and indicated that while there, she had received abuse. MEYERS stated that DOROTHY, in his opinion, has been a real hero in the Party and that they should put a stop to this kind of abuse. In answer to a query from an unidentified individual, MEYERS commented that she (DOROTHY) did not give him any of the details, but that he had received it from a third party and it concerned the Twelve Party Declaration.

MEYERS said the only explanation is the "disease" stemming from nationalism which has resulted in a deep hate for the Soviet Union and a deep disgust with every --- in the Party. He indicated that it has developed into a whispering campaign against comrades supporting the (Soviet Union) point of view. Continuing, MEYERS commented that the Party had been under constant attack in "our district" (Maryland) from sources such as Government and State officials. So that this fear of "stool pigeons" is something "we" have to contend with there. There is an unhealthy fear, some of the comrades quit in disgust and some quit in anger. It is a pretty tough thing, you see. Who knows who is the stool pigeon and who isn't.

MEYERS then referred to an individual who has been made a stool pigeon like every other Negro of our Party in our district has been made a stool pigeon, "every single Negro." MEYERS indicated that this individual tried to bring the situation to a head by ordering charges preferred against him. He said this did not make any difference as "they" act without even consulting district leaders. MEYERS said he just wondered how the problem exists in other districts, adding that the situation is worsening and it keeps the Party off balance.

Informant advised that JACK STACHEL commented that something similar was taking place here, too.

Remarks of BILL ALBERTSON

About six weeks ago, "I" finally succeeded in getting (to lead ?) the Waterfront Section--got there by cutting off the Waterfront subsidy on the basis that the Waterfront refused to participate in the fund drive. ALBERTSON then referred to a meeting, apparently of the Waterfront Section, saying that, as far as political discussion was concerned, the DENNIS report was the height of revisionism. He said there was an official representative of lower Harlem and from New Jersey present at the meeting. ALBERTSON commented that one of the speakers pointed out that they are making national tours, having been to Pittsburgh and Chicago. It is a fact that eight months ago, they had an eastern seaboard conference, at which a vote was taken as to whether to set up a new organization with the (Party ?), and the vote, if "I" remember correctly, was about 32 to 17 to reject the idea of a new organization.

Now the kind of talk that took place in that Waterfront meeting was something that I had never heard before. He indicated that they attacked the whole national and state leadership, adding that when the discussion was over, there were few people there who would have dared to vote against the report of anyone. He indicated that they have complete control of everything in that section.

NY 100-80641

b7c

Continuing, ALBERTSON commented that insofar as Brooklyn is concerned, in the Brooklyn leadership some comrades are working together with this ultra group and are influenced by some of the points of view expressed. Some comrades thought that the only way they could defeat the "right" was on the basis of making an alliance with the "ultra left," and they did so. Except that this alliance was broken up on instructions from [redacted] and [redacted] that under no circumstances would they unite with anybody that had a tinge of revisionism.

"I" think, generally speaking, fortunately, "they" (ultra left) are more or less isolated as certain pockets in a couple of industries. In the Waterfront, they have control and, of course, in lower Harlem and in one or two other places.

Now, insofar as the extreme right is concerned, there was a private affair in Brooklyn some weeks ago on the question of amnesty for GIL (GREEN) and WINNIE (HENRY WINSTON). They had approximately one hundred people present and invitations had gone to a number of people who were not associated with them. They charged admission and raised a little over $300. EDNA (WINSTON) was present. ALBERTSON said that he was informed concerning the meeting and that it was the type of affair where everybody was speaking about everything and everyone. Of course, people were there who are not like JOHN GATES and others.

Continuing, informant advised that ALBERTSON then spoke on the question of resignations, saying that the California document is not just something which comes up in California and, in his opinion, it establishes a program. "I" see it as fact that there is a (conspiracy in this thing.) "I" cannot understand a "scurrilous" document that is still being mailed to Jewish comrades in New York which speaks of American Communist Party as supporting Soviet politics in the Middle East. It is a cartoon of a Russian bear shaking hands with a Nazi storm-trooper carrying the sign "Down with the Jews." It has on the front cover a picture of a broken Jewish star. This cannot be the final expression of a comrade gone berserk, it has to be more than that, because it is intended to tear the Party apart and create all kinds of demoralization and anti-Party attitudes in a place like New York with a large Jewish population.

ALBERTSON indicated that this must be Government inspired and thought that they should look into the matter.

Remarks of MICKEY LIMA

LIMA commented that the group that has been inspired by the last National Committee meeting has been the ultra left in California. They are attempting to justify their position as a result of this meeting. "I" still feel the Party has the responsibility for considering whether or not "they" handled this thing in the manner which was most effective. "I" say they didn't do it. They failed along the lines that CLAUDE (LIGHTFOOT) and CARL (WINTER) had attempted to do, to arrive at collective agreements. As a result, we have the kind of situation that resulted in California today. It fed the extreme left on one hand and it fed the development of this other group on the other side.

LIMA then spoke concerning the factionalist fight, saying that all kinds of documents have been sent to California from New York, Chicago and Indiana. He referred to a conversation he had with BILL SENNETT (phonetic) where SENNETT made all kinds of phoney statements to the effect that he had nothing to do with people inside the Party, that he had established contacts with groups outside the Party. This is the kind of line he (SENNETT ?) had. This is the development that took place in California. The key thing was raised, and this has been raised from the right also; namely, that the resolution be rejected. This was raised in both district county meetings, both in the north and in the south, rejecting the position taken as a result of the National Committee meeting.

Well, their argument is that the Party is an obstacle to the development of a Marxist-Leninist (cult ?). Now the argument they use is that the result of the resolution in the National Committee means that the extreme left is now in the leadership of the national center and they are going to intervene in California and impose a leadership there that is more acceptable to their position.

LIMA then referred to a conversation he had with an unidentified female, saying that he charged her that the taking of this step was going to put the PW ("People's World") in danger and "she" remarked that "the PW is going to be destroyed anyway."

According to the informant, LIMA, then referring to the labor movement in the A.F. of L. section, commented that they are more interested in what develops in other countries in comparison to the class struggle in this country. The Party in Northern California is concerned that despite losses, the bulk of the Party's members are, of this moment, uncommitted; that is, uncommitted as far as any factional group is concerned. The bulk of the Party in Northern California can be won with a correct policy. The resignations that are taking place, and I don't want to underestimate their importance, and I do not know what the indications are, but it is going to have repercussions. LIMA indicated that Brooklyn has become, not only ideologically, but a major base for this operation, the major center for the birth of the national (clubs) in this operation.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be HY LUMER

First, "I" want to point out that the problem of the extreme left affects the extreme right, something which affects everyone. He then referred to a report given by one BILL (LNU), saying that BILL gave a report and a prepared speech without having read the prepared report. The nature of his speech was that the report was no good, that it did not give a true characterization of the economic crisis. "I" mention this because it illustrates a basic feature of the people in these groups. You are dealing here with an attempt to prove a preconceived line. However, I do not think that this means there is no basis for an ideological struggle, because I think you have a substantial section of Party members who are honest. I think it has to be approached and presented to the Party and has to be ruthlessly exposed. On the question of factionalism, the Party cannot tolerate organized factional activity. If you don't, you will have serious cause to regret it. You have to give some consideration on how to deal with the material put out by this group, because while this stuff is circulating through their own channels in its factional form, there is a campaign to print it in 48 states, which "I" think we ought to resist and fight against.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

"I" want to say at the outset that "we" will make a very serious mistake if "we" allow this sharp crisis to divert us from mass work in the Party. Mass work will be more difficult in the Party because of the ultra left, as well as the right. It is true that in Harlem the danger is from the "left wing," but after the State convention, when "we" saw what was taking place with the emergence of the ultra left, a real fight was put up. There are still influences of the left in Harlem. This is particularly true among the active Negro cadre. "We" have in the Harlem Party organization a new type of cadre, comrades who have good training. "I" have been unable to help them because of State problems, which is my number one authority. It is my desire to reshuffle, to reorganize, so "I" can play a greater role in Harlem. In saying that, let me say, there is a very severe cadre crisis in Harlem. It is most severe where "we" had a large group of women associated with the right point of view, but I do not think it would give the comrades a true picture if I did not give them a picture of the fight put up against the ultra left.

We reorganized the New York State Committee and GEORGE (CHARNEY ?) and "I" did that primarily on the platform of a struggle of the ultra left. This situation has been complicated by the fact that most of the influence of the comrades among the ultra left has been among Puerto Rican comrades, Negro comrades and women. BOB (THOMPSON) did refer to the fact that (CHARLIE (LOMAN) already championed this ultra left over in New Jersey, which is an indication of the influence of the ultra left. "We" have been able to prevent the Brooklyn ultra left from assuming the organizational aspects of fighting the Party's line. The biggest expression of this has been in finances. With respect to the present financial situation, BOB (THOMPSON), BILL (ALBERTSON ?) and "I" had some discussions with CHARLIE (LOMAN) wherein "we" are not satisfied with the financial situation.

DAVIS indicated that they had received agreement from CHARLIE (LOMAN) that the main properties of the Party in Brooklyn will be turned over to the State. DAVIS then referred to the Jewish composition in "our Party" which is being exploited by forces both in and outside the Party. The Party must be educated in the forms and expression of this with respect to the building of the Jewish movement and the relationship of this to the Negro problem. "I" think the Party should examine this question and work out some sort of a Party position. Now a campaign was carried out for some time in the capitalistic press by HARRY SCHWARTZ ("New York Times" reporter) to the effect that (JIM) JACKSON, "I" and other Negro comrades were anti-Semite. "We" in New York have reduced the ultra left to lower Harlem. Now we have to move in and really dissolve it, and do everything possible to break up the "cohesiveness" of this faction.

We cannot allow the fact that there are certain comrades of the right who have been following a systematic policy of blackmail of the Party. They are not interested in the Party itself, its program, its committees, but have only one G-- D--- interest in the Party and that is how much money they can get out of it. I say we have to examine the weapons, not just rank and filers, but leaders of the Party. The same thing goes for the ultra left.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

We have a situation where we must tackle these two simultaneously. We cannot say we have no more problems with right-wingers in California or the "sit-down strike" here. At the same time, it is clear that if you ignore the question of ultra left, you cannot move, you are paralyzed. We have more or less united, not on a "right line" or a "left line," but to carry out the line of the 16th Convention. This convention, in the estimate of the last National Committee meeting, was very important. "I" do not want to go into the points made by comrade LIMA as to whether we made a mistake on how we handled it. What happened at the National Committee meeting, in my opinion, was not the most important thing in the world. What happened at the last NC meeting was not a victory for any group. The convention itself did not adopt a position one way or the other. That is why I emphasize that this is not the time for any group, because everybody is taking advantage of the fact that there is no Party or what they consider no Party authority. They are moving in, everybody is as good as the next fellow. In fact, the more you can attack the leadership, the more friends you get. That was possible because there was no united leadership. "We" have got to answer that question. We shouldn't be so much on the defensive. We should fight for the Party and fight for the leadership and if we can establish authority, then we can deal more adequately with these things.

Now I want to say a few words on another matter. In my opinion, the time has come where every member of the National Committee has to say whether he is willing to accept, he doesn't have to agree, the line of the Party to carry out this policy. I do not see how we can have a National Committee at the present time in this situation, this action from the right, from the left, and from both within and outside the Party against us. We have people who claim they have all the answers. They are going to sit it out and they are going around organizing something else. I agree that the struggle with certain comrades is mainly ideological, but where there is a breach of discipline, BOB (THOMPSON ?) took care of that. In Brooklyn, you have a double situation. On one hand, they vote for the resolution and they are willing to do it, while on the other hand - - be the judge. Don't let them think they are fooling us, we know exactly what is going on and demand an answer. Are they with the Party or against the Party. The answer will not only be what they say in words but whether they are willing to join the struggle. For example; comrade LIMA has already reported what they are doing in California with those people who are resigning. You cannot fight for the Party unless you do these things. Now the same thing goes with people like (CHARLIE) LOMAN and others like (EMANUEL) BLUM or (WILLIAM) WEINSTONE. We want to know whether they are going to join us in the struggle against [REDACTED] or whether they are going to support them.

b6
b7C

That is why we couldn't act together at the last National Committee meeting without coming to a sharp point of view. Now in New York, certain mistakes were made because people were pulling in different directions. Mistakes were made and I think we have a good chance now for a united leadership and a united policy and we should present it to the Party.

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

JACK (STACHEL ?), "I" want to say I have the highest admiration for you and your tremendous influence. "I" cannot say you brain-washed me, you got me to go along with this approach, you changed my mind when you got there. We have the struggle against extreme action, extreme views. The struggle now should be waged on the basis of application to work. That's the primary one. In Chicago, we decided to do something on the legal question. We called a conference and got everyone's feelings and a program. We came to the conference and the conference was derailed. Comrades, we have to remove these obstacles. Unless we do, we can't get down to work. So I think that the remarks that BOB (THOMPSON ?) made about setting up procedures are eminently correct. We find that people are being singularized for their political point of view. I was glad that BOB brought that to my attention in the document that he drafted in New York. I was very happy because I had been given an entirely different impression of BOB (THOMPSON). So "I" think that we have to take organizational measures against obstacles that impede the Party getting down to mass work.

The second thing is, we do have an ideological problem, you may have an ideological problem with me. People are thinking nowadays, thinking for themselves, I hope, and not like "parrots," but with the kind of atmosphere we've had in the Party, it is impossible to have an ideological discussion. A few things, comrades, have come out of this leadership in the past two or three years that will meet the march of time or that will stand up as a special material for this generation of Communists to hand down to the next.

Now everybody knows where I stand on the Hungary situation, yet I was compelled on Hungary to say that I thought that APTHEKER (HERB) had done the most fouled up job on that question than anything that I had seen written. HARRY HAYWOOD set out a summary, whose conclusions "we" won't agree with, but at least he went to work on the problem. He did not go at it superficially. "I" think he did a good job. The point I'm trying to get at is that the comrades are impressed with it. We have to get down to the next phase of this ideological debate and discussions and a lot of work has to be done.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

At this time, I would like to defer some remarks which I was to make. We should now be opening up on registration and we should hear from KIRSH (phonetic) (ANTHONY KRCHMAREK).

Remarks of ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

We set out to register 470 and we have registered 640. We are going to bring that figure up. The problem is twofold. During this period, Cleveland has been given the main center of our - - -. We had organization in all of these centers at one time. At one time, we had three full-time functionaries. Because we had full-time functionaries in all the important areas. During this period, (activities) pretty much fell apart insofar as our organization was concerned, I mean a functioning organization. At one time, the bulk of the membership was outside Cleveland, 60 per cent outside Cleveland and 40 per cent in Cleveland, but now we have the opposite, 60 per cent in Cleveland and 40 per cent outside. The problem became one of maintaining contacts with people. This we have done in most of the places, not in all. Strikingly enough, in the mining area, in the Ohio Valey section, we have a continuing organization; continually functioning. We constituted in Youngstown a functioning organization; in Dayton, the beginnings of an organization. The last place we tackled was Columbus and we had been completely out of touch with Columbus for three years. We knew there were some people there. "I" went down there to make the contacts about six weeks ago. Informant advised that in answer to a query, KRCHMAREK answered that he had met with [redacted] whom he described as very accommodating, but he did not know him (KRCHMAREK). "I" told him that if you are not sure who the comrades have sent out to you, you are absolutely right. "I" would not have it any different. So I said, suppose you [redacted] sit down and have a meeting, and decide what you are going to do. KRCHMAREK indicated that as a result of this, 50 (?) were registered.

b6
b7c

NY 100-80641

The point is that during the last two or three years, "they" had been left completely on their own, this group of comrades, and most were Negro comrades. They had been subjected to the greatest terror, persecution and everything else. Politically, there are no lefts or rights, there is only one thing for them. Friends, the Soviet Union means something to them, socialism means something to them. The thing is that we have been reconstituting step by step. It has been difficult because we have one and a half functionaries to cover this territory. So the registration is not completed, but we are proceeding with it.

We have a much more favorable situation in Cleveland itself, and in the process of all the difficulty, have had a chance to sit down with all kinds of people to discuss with them and to bring back to the fold a number of people who have asked to be brought back into the Party. Some of them have already been brought back. Some of them are reviewing. The surprising thing is "they" asked me if they could come back in the Party. But they joined the Party not to join a debating club, they don't want to be members of a debating society.

According to the informant, KRCHMAREK then stated that "we" figure at least another 50 to bring it up (apparently referring to registration) and we may get more than that, bring it up to about 90 per cent.

NY 100-80641

The main thing is what is the Party going to do. When a guy is unemployed, he wants some kind of a program. There are all kinds of questions coming up. For instance, we had a committee conference a week ago. It was supposed to be in that women's committee, but it took a highly different form. In this committee conference, we found a lot of interesting things. For example, in one section we found that a majority of the people in that section were members of one church or another. We had never paid any attention to the work in the churches in any organized form and out of this conference came the proposal that we call a conference of these people who are active in churches, in order to develop a Party program in relation to their activity in church. Some of them occupy leading positions in churches. There are numerous things that are coming out as activities are developing in the unemployed areas. I suppose you have the biggest unemployment in that area, 58,000 steel workers and only 10,000 working 40 hours a week, 28,000 unemployed, and the balance working 2 or 3 days a week. This has been going on for almost a year, a steady going down hill.

There has been a big change in attitude towards our Party. There is a demand (for instruction)--many ask what is the Party program, what are we supposed to do? This from non-Party people who remember our role in the days past. They remember us as an organization of struggles, political struggles, so they want to know.

So, the organization is functioning. We have solid people and we are building. We feel very confident that with the kind of program we are projecting now, the position of the Party will strengthen as we go along.

Informant advised that EUGENE DENNIS interrupted KRCHMAREK and asked how he could explain that more copies of "Political Economy (phonetic)" were sold than they got "Worker" subscriptions.

NY 100-80641

KRCHMAREK stated that they had sold 40 copies and we have to get more, political economy, Soviet political economy. There is a big demand for it and the demand continues. Now, on the question of "The Worker," it is a very disturbing thing. There is a certain dissatisfaction with "The Worker" but in the last few months there has been a change in the attitude of our membership, a remarkable change of taking the paper now for their own paper and really feeling that it is their paper. We are confident that we are going to fulfill our obligations to "The Worker." There is an eagerness to get the paper. They want the paper and they think the contents are getting very good. However, there is still criticism. There is still the feeling that we do not know where we are going yet with the contents of the paper. The people feel now that we are going to build.

Remarks of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

Comrades, we come to the question of what we have and where to move.

According to the informant, LIGHTFOOT indicated that the diminishing numbers, apparently of members, does not necessarily tell the whole story of what the Party is capable of doing. He said that it depends in a large part on the quality of the people involved. LIGHTFOOT then discussed the present registration in the Illinois area, but used the blackboard extensively to denote those registered and key people, which information was not available to the informant.

According to the informant, LIGHTFOOT discussed the Industrial Section and said they have registered the same number of people that they had before and in the course of this registration, "they" revitalized a club. He indicated that "they" (apparently Industrial Section) are the best organized group or division in the district. The only contradiction is, the Party is their mass organization.

They have not got much as far as they've been able to do in the various craft unions. In this particular situation, you have all the articulate leading people almost all in that category.

Continuing, LIGHTFOOT remarked that they had had a reception on the south side (of Chicago) for a doctor. He said there were 80 people there and these people represented a cross-section of "Who's Who." They used to be in the Communist Party of the U. S. in the Negro community. People from all walks of life. People you'd never suspect, and all of them expressed deep interest in what was going on (apparently in the Party). LIGHTFOOT added that he himself had not attended this meeting but expressed the idea that the above example indicated that the situation in the south side was not hopeless. According to the informant, LIGHTFOOT said that the problem in the Negro communities, which was typical of Harlem and elsewhere, was the question of integration, asking, "How do you integrate with the strong nationalist tendencies in the ranks of the Communist Party?" He indicated there have been people in the Communist movement from 15 to 30 years that have never been integrated in the Party.

He then referred to an unnamed woman, saying that she does not speak the same language (as he). She does not understand what it is all about and a lot of the losses we have had in the Negro community arise out of this factor. People who are not going to let me tell them that the Negro question is subordinate to everything else, because to them the solution to the problem is one of its primary purposes. They speak of themselves as allies in the struggle, but they are not working class Marxists, and this contradiction over the years is one we did not solve. This is one of the reasons why we had such heavy losses. I do not want to get into it, but I think it should bear some examination.

Continuing, LIGHTFOOT referred to other areas, apparently in Chicago, saying they had suffered grievous losses. He then referred to an unnamed individual with whom he has been in frequent contact, saying that this individual has come to him and said, "Listen, CLAUDE, don't tell me this, don't tell me that. I'm doing this my own way now. I listened to you before, but I am doing it my own way now." LIGHTFOOT stated that registration is good, relatively speaking. They are organized, but they are not doing very much. And, all in all, he would say organizationally "we" have declined in the last year.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of LIMA (MICKEY)

During his talk LIMA made frequent use of the blackboard and consequently the informant was unable to obtain complete details.

LIMA spoke of the rather major losses which the Party has had in the youth category. He said that now "we've" taken some steps in East Bay and "we've" organized a youth club. He noted that the youth club has recruited four or five (members). He also remarked that BILL LOWE (phonetic) has gone back to give a hand on "that". He said "we" just had a meeting with San Francisco last week with a number of youth in the city and with a youth club and a youth party club. "We" have to again take hold and give some direction to "our" youth. He continued that possibly later when other things are discussed and policies are worked out, "we" can do something different, but "we'd" have to have some way to get this over and make it possible for the young people to begin to get some practice on Party work. He noted that there also can be possible recruits there. He said that in the East Bay, there is a Marxist group of about 40 and he then noted on the blackboard how many recruits this group has. "I've" had a number of discussions with the fellows and "we've" got some different opinions on the impressions "we've" had. LIMA noted that in both places, that is San Francisco and East Bay, the people have gone through a certain process in that they have worked now for a year or so with Trotskyites and "they've got it filled up to their necks(?)." He said they are beginning now to come back to the Party and some people who even had left the Party among these are now coming back into the Party. With respect to the industrial category, LIMA said "I estimate that when the total registration is in, it will total about that of New York vicinities industrial workers." He then said these figures (blackboard) show about less than half the current set up and that there are members that still have to come in from San Francisco in the longshore warehouse and building trades categories. LIMA continues with a discussion of losses in various categories without identifying them, apparently noting the categories in which there are losses on the blackboard. LIMA raised the question of whether "we" need a district or county forum such as "we've" had in the past. He said that they do not have the leading forces able to work directly with the main centers of production and "I've" raised the whole question at least in the Bay area. He said that he has had a combination in terms of the size involved so that the leadership if available can work in a most advantageous way and directly reach the point of production. He said that he considered that this procedure is going to breed a new kind of forum and is going to eliminate more or less economist county set up and there will be more of an area set up. He pointed out that East Bay and San Francisco are different counties, noting that East Bay is Alameda County and that East Bay and San Francisco are across the bay from each other. He then said "now we'll have a Bay area set up that will tie together those two areas and maybe Santa Clara."

LIMA then spoke of another area (apparently identifying it on the blackboard) where "we" set up a section that's kind of far flung. He noted that in this area they have their own officers, they meet regularly and their membership has almost doubled in the last year. He said "I" was amazed at the registration and also the relationship to this in terms of what these people represented. He said there was a big increase in terms of their contacts in the area such as political organizations as well as minority group organizations. He said that from being more or less an isolated grouping, "they" have made very definite progress.

DENNIS questioned LIMA with respect to any growth in membership among Negro and Mexican workers and LIMA said "no, we are very limited in that respect." He observed that "they" are weak in terms of Mexican-Americans and Negroes.

Remarks of BILL ALBERTSON

ALBERTSON's talk was concerned mainly with membership and throughout his discussion he made frequent use of the blackboard. In view of this, informant was unable to obtain complete details.

ALBERTSON said that he did not know what "we" started with, but "I" will give you what "they" had a month ago. He then spoke of the number registered in Brooklyn, Manhattan, Bronx, Queens, Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester as of March 1. In each instance he gave no figure, but apparently noted the figure on the blackboard. His statement concerning each county would be such as this "Brooklyn registered this as of the first of March."

ALBERTSON continued with a discussion of the Up State area of New York and said that actually it had been very hard for him to find actually what exists at this time. He then spoke of the registration as of March 1, again apparently noting the number on the blackboard and said that all of those registered were in Buffalo. He said "there (Up State?) the organization has been completely shattered and what exists are individuals in certain cities." He said that in the important cities some of them get together. ALBERTSON indicated that if something was to be done about this situation, it would mean the assignment of somebody "to go up there" as quickly as possible in order to save as much as "we" can. He said that in the Buffalo area "we" do not have any serious problem because this will be achieved.

ALBERTSON remarked that because of the increased activity of the Buffalo organization in the past six months, especially evidenced by the Party paper they are putting out, the FBI has visited the print shop and "they" said they would no longer print the paper. ALBERTSON said that the FBI visited a number of other printers and every printer has been seen so that the paper will from now on have to be printed by somebody in New York.

At this point in ALBERTSON's talk, an unidentified man asked a question which the informant was unable to furnish, but in reply JACK STACHEL said "that's right, 2100 without Up State. Yes, that's right, 2100."

ALBERTSON resumed with his talk and said that incidentally in the Buffalo area, it appears that there have been no losses. He then spoke of the problems in other communities, especially in Brooklyn and certain areas of Manhattan, making the observation "that the organization is smashed up completely." ALBERTSON remarked that "one might say" that the major contributing factor to this situation is the internal struggle as it exists. He said that the problem in a place like this is just to get somebody to go into the area and be a coordinator.

ALBERTSON continued that in other places one of the big problems is the problem of getting people to go out and get some subscriptions.

ALBERTSON spoke of the registration figures in the Harlem area of New York and observed that the registration figures were "much, much, much" lower than what existed in 1955 and 1956. ALBERTSON concluded with a reference to waterfront registration and remarked "these people are divided into three groups which are politically very important in the present structure."

NY 100-80641

Remarks of ROBERT THOMPSON

THOMPSON observed that "we" ought to have an outlook on not terminating the registrations in the usual manner. "I" think we will have to work for the establishment of membership committees that can go back over the membership of the last two or three years to see if over a long range period, we can't draw back some of this youth that has dropped out during this part of the Party's abnormal life. He remarked that they had dropped out because of lack of contact or troubles of the Party in recent years. He suggested membership committees be set up to recontact these people, because some of those lost "are not yet really gone."

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

DENNIS proposed that registrations continue throughout the year 1958 and "I" think the doors should be open to those who through no fault of their own were disconnected from the Party from the (year?) 1951. DENNIS said that there are a lot of people who have been disconnected from the Party for three, four or more years, but they would be insulted if you did not greet them as comrades. He continued that these individuals "consider themselves Communists". DENNIS claimed that they were just neglected. He said there are a lot of people "we've" not been able to approach yet and the doors should be open for all those who may have left to come back.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

STACHEL made a motion that the NEC authorize the discussion and action on "these motions". He said there is much more important business that "we" have to take up here tonight.

The unidentified male (MEYERS?) asked about work in the national office being divided into districts and speaks of finding a name for a representative. Someone suggested the name field representative. The unidentified man said "that's right. It's needed more all the time." He expressed the opinion that it would bring closer liaison between the national office of the Party and the various districts.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

DENNIS made reference to the proposal in BOB's (THOMPSON) report and said "I'm" not ready to move on his proposal. "I" hope to suggest without discussion the submission of a memo or letter to members of the National and State Committees and possibly the (membership?). He said "I" think it is incumbent on "us" to inform the Party on resignations that have taken place and to express an opinion. "I'm" thinking of those who have resigned from posts and "I'm" particularly thinking of those from the National Committee. Such a letter should be in possession of the NEC not only generally, but particularly to all factional groups.

NY 100-80641

Continuation of Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

There should be some proposal to ferret (?) this one way or the other. The committee should go into it so there is a report subsequently to a higher committee. Informant advised that DENNIS was interrupted by an unidentified male, who asked if "your" committee was the one to get the facts--. On that, the proposal is to establish a committee of non full-time comrades; that is, nobody on the staff of the National or the State.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be GEORGE MEYERS

I would like to serve on that committee. I hope that HY (LUMER) will work out a system and prevent the same kind of mess from recurring. We do not want to depend on individuals whatsoever. An unknown male then asked what the composition of the committee would be, to which it was answered that the personnel would come out of the district and would be chosen by the National Committee.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

O. K., comrades, you heard the proposal. Agreed?

Remarks of ROBERT THOMPSON

According to the informant, THOMPSON remarked that he wished the statement would add to it, within the framework of the call for unity in the Party.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be MICKEY LIMA

According to the informant, LIMA commented that if the people are in a section, that is where they work, and if they are in a state, that is where they work. He said the reason he raised this question in order to figure out some policy statement and to agree on a policy. He indicated that the Party is simply being torn to pieces because of a lack of policy and a lack of established Party procedure.

NY 100-80641

He said that they have to show some leadership and it is not a matter of using orders or decrees, adding that unless they establish some semblance of Party organization, he did not see how they could get anybody to do any work.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

According to the informant, LIGHTFOOT indicated that when he returned to his district, he was going to be asked concerning the National Committee meeting, and that he would be asked if there was any differences of opinion.

Remarks of Unknown Male

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant spoke and seconded the remarks of LIGHTFOOT, indicating that when he returns to his district, many questions would be asked concerning the meeting. This individual indicated that it would be necessary to differentiate what happened at the meeting and the making of a report of the meeting.

According to the informant, there was considerable discussion as to the formation of possible reports.

Remarks of Individual Believed to be JACK STACHEL

According to the informant, individual believed to be STACHEL stated that in most cases the problem is to mobilize the Party, line up the Party.

Remarks of Unknown Male

According to the informant, an individual whose identity was unknown to the informant commented that he did not know what took place in New Jersey, and DENNIS replied that four resigned from the State Committee and two resigned from the Party.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

I think we have to have a very firm and very clear policy. I think that what we should require of members of the National Committee is that they take (?) the Party position; that is, to mobilize the Party to the line of the Party. According to the informant, DAVIS also stated that in New York, they are questioning the statement of resignation of GEORGE CHARNEY, [REDACTED] and (BILL) LAWRENCE. DAVIS indicated that he was writing a statement of reply to show the Party the ideological necessity and the political necessity of conducting a fight.

b6

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

I suggest that we wind up with something on the Party program. According to the informant, DENNIS referred to articles that appeared in the "Times" ("New York Times") and "Trib" ("Herald Tribune") concerning the recent session of the supreme Soviet, which indicated that the Soviet Union will announce the cessation of production and tests of atomic weapons. He indicated that this was going to have a great impact on every country, and thought that it was unfortunate that they couldn't get this discussion into the present meeting. He indicated that this was a tremendous contribution towards peace and raises very concretely the demand that the tests scheduled for the Pacific, May through August, should not take place, and also the reaching an agreement of a possible summit (conference).

Continuing, the informant advised that DENNIS stated that on the current program there had been discussions a couple of weeks ago with HY (LUMER), JACK (STACHEL), JIM JACKSON and himself. He indicated that they recommended a setup of a program committee. He said that "we" propose that at the next full meeting of the NEC, there should be a report on what "we" call an editorial committee. He said they would allot sufficient time for basic discussion which would include a "critique" on the British program. He indicated that without the formation of an outline and the mapping of a draft, they could not make the necessary headway. He thought that the preparation of the draft program could be realistically approached by the end of 1958; that is, an actual draft of the program for discussion. He suggested that they set up a program commission and an editorial committee, in which they would devote the major part of their time to preparing the program.

"We" propose, as part of the program committee, and what "we" call the editorial committee, to include JIM ALLEN, HERB APTHEKER and HY LUMER. The rest of the program commission "we" propose CLAUDE (LIGHTFOOT), CARL WINTER, AL RICHMOND, SI GERSON, (MIKE) RUSSO (phonetic), ALEX BITTLEMAN, SPARKS (possibly NED SPARKS), [REDACTED] BERT NELSON, PETTIS PERRY, GEORGE MORRIS, JIM JACKSON and himself. DENNIS commented that the editorial committee and the program committee could vote for an enlargement of its membership. DENNIS indicated that there was an additional or substitute proposal which would include three members of the NEC, six additional members of the NC, and eight others. According to the informant, DENNIS indicated that these proposals could be discussed further at the next meeting of the NC.

Remarks of BEN DAVIS

Well, to tell you frankly, I do not like to see things like this thrown in at the last minute. We do not have any chance to discuss personnel. I am not satisfied to just go along passively. There are a number of problems that should be discussed. I think we should have comrades with all kinds of feelings. I am not giving up the theoretical fight. But I want to see us get something done about this factional business in the Party. All I see right now is another smear campaign.

NY 100-80641

Remarks of Unknown Male

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant commented that the proposals made have certain merit because what is proposed is not the writing of a program but rather a preparation of some sort of a report, on the basis of which an enlarged group will sit down and discuss in concrete terms what we're going to do about a program. I think we must move on it.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

I know I feel opposition to shelve it. I think our committee was mainly sound but there might be changes.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

It took seven years to write that program--adopted in 1951, if you recall, and now they finally adopted a program, a year after convention. They finally adopted the thing on March 8. It will take us that long, too, but I think we have to get started functioning. STACHEL commented that he would propose that they accept this as is until the next meeting.

According to the informant, there was considerable discussion as to who would be on the committees proposed for the writing of the draft program.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

According to informant, DENNIS indicated that since they were unable to reach agreement, perhaps a new (report) would be made.

Remarks of Unknown Female

An individual whose identity was unknown to the informant stated that at the last meeting she made a statement denouncing BITTLEMAN. She said the reason she made the statement was because she felt he (BITTLEMAN) had such fixed ideas that he simply stymied the committee from getting anything done. This individual added that she was not opposed to his ideas and indicated that perhaps this was a personal affair and should not be discussed at the meeting.

Remarks of EUGENE DENNIS

I think, comrades, that at this particular meeting, we should take the minimum steps. I won't burden the comrades with a collective report and we will have a very frank discussion of the things either mentioned or heard here.

Remarks of JACK STACHEL

I agree with the proposal. From my point of view, I am willing to work in the Party under difficulty--especially now--we have a lot of difficult comrades.

Meeting adjourned.

heavy set, middle-aged negro and five elderly women. The speaker for the class was introduced as Martin Young, one who needs no introduction to those familiar with the labor movement. His topic was the labor movement and Socialism in the U.S.

Young began his talk by given a brief background of the early labor movement. He thought it began with Debs and began to gain organization with the I.W.W. He thought Socialism played a great part in the early development of the labor movement especially in the formation of the C.I.O.

At this point, Young asked for audience participation so he could continue his talk based on what each person thought Socialism could offer the labor movement and the U.S. Young said he was amazed that Capitalism could make such great strides since 1930 especially after most Socialist of that time were sounding its death bell. Young thought this fact must be considered if one is to find a way to bring Socialism to the American people.

The audience reaction was that Capitalism still has within itself the seeds of its own destruction but was greatly stimulated by the war and the present war economy. Some thought that external pressure imposed by the Socialist nations have forced Capitalism to reform itself so that it was not the same economic philosophy in 1930 as it is today.

Young agreed with most of the comments but asked how then is Socialism to develop or is there any need for it. Many suggestions were offered declaring the necessity of Socialism because Capitalism was not able to offer prosperity for all. It could not and would not offer equality for the negro people nor could it solve any of its vexing internal problem. The deterioration of the school system and the rise of Juvenile delinquency were cited as example of the decay of Capitalism. All thought that Socialism is needed today because Capitalism is in a decaying state.

Young closed the talk by summing up what was said and agreeing that Socialism is important in the U.S. today. What he asked how this could be best done most agreed by working with the exploited, championing causes of the oppressed, campaigning for world peace and the banning of atomic testing, and by learning more about Socialism. The talk closed with a few comments by Young. The method used by Young, of class participation, was well received by the audience. All agreed it made for a better class.

Before the class began [] talked for about 15 minutes. [] gave to [] several invitations to a Sobell Party to be held in the near future. [] and [] talked about the left movement and the need for more active people. [] told [] he would like to join the Communist Party but did not know if he could meet all the qualifications because of an already full schedule. Anton replied that it did not make much difference as there are many different groups within the party who work with doctors, lawyers and professional people. These people are not known and do work for the party in a different way. Anton said even priests are in the party. [] asked him if he did not mean preachers but he replied priests and preachers. [] mentioned that he would like to be more openly for the party but feared economic or professional reprisal since he had applied for enrollment in the I.G.L.W.U. labor school. Anton replied that he would be more use to the party as an intellectual in a position of some respect than in an active movement of the party. [] asked [] if he had talked to []. Report of a visit by [] to the Communist Party headquarters at 23 West 26th Street on Thursday afternoon, April 10, 1953. The purpose of the visit was to talk to [] or Arnold Johnson about membership in the Communist Party. Anton Novak made arrangements for the visit by previously speaking to [] and Johnson.

When [] arrived at Communist Party about 1:30 PM, He asked to speak to []. He was told she was in conference and could not be detained. The switchboard operator female, white, 5 ft 6 in., 125 lbs, black hair, about 38 years old, asked if he could drop back, since [] could not he asked to speak to Arnold Johnson. The operator called Johnson on the phone and asked if a man named [] could speak to him. The operator then told [] to go down the steps where he would see Johnson at his desk.

Johnson greeted [] very enthusiastically. He mentioned that Anton talked to him about [] joining the party. Johnson apologized for not having too much time as he had an important project to get out and because he had to get ready to travel to Ohio that evening. [] apologized for taking his time and asked if it would be better to drop back. Johnson said he would not be back in N.Y. until the middle of next week and said smilingly, that he could always find time for a prospective comrade.

b6

Johnson and another woman, white, 5 ft 3 in., about 130 lbs, about 55 yrs old, greyish brown hair, glasses, were the only other people in the basement. Johnson had several papers about his desk and was working on some kind of a chart.

Johnson said to [] that he understood he was interested in joining the Party but did not want to do so openly for fear of reprisals and loss of possible opportunities. [] replied that he would like to join the Party but could not participate in affairs openly because at the present he was trying to enroll in the Training Institute of the International Ladies Garments Workers Union.

[] stated to Johnson that he thought his action were cowardly in that he should fight and campaign for what he believed in. Johnson asked such actions were not cowardly but showed signs of thought and a realization of the problems involved. Johnson asked [] if he had any reason to fear reprisals for his activities. [] replied that he had worked with the Sobell Committee and various other Left Groups and because of this was approached by the F.B.I. for Communist activities. Huegel said this made him understand the situation much more clearly and was the reason why he wanted to speak to he and [] about it.

b6
b7C

Johnson replied that all party members are not active ones and many times important work is done by those in non-party work. Johnson advised [] to bring this up with [] because she is in a better position to place people.

b6
b7C

Johnson said he would like to have a long talk with [] and answer any questions that he might have. Johnson said in a joking way that if a person would wait until he were informed on all their was to know and read all the material available the person would be ninety before joining the party.

b6

Johnson expressed regret that he could not talk longer with [] and advised him that his concerns were good and justifiable. He again suggested getting in touch with [redacted].

b6
b7C

[redacted] asked the switch-board operator if he could call [redacted] back and at what time. She advised about 4:00 PM.

At 8:00 P.M. [redacted] talked with [redacted] and an appointment was set up for Tuesday afternoon April 15, 1953 at 4:00 PM. at the Communist Party headquarters.

NY 100-26603

DAVIS prefaced his report by remarking that there would be a statewide conference on Negro work in New York City on 4/25,26/58 wherein a full program of work in the Negro field would be developed. He suggested that a committee be organized to handle the setting up of the conference.

In opening his report, DAVIS noted the existence of a world socialist system of states and the disintegration of the colonial system particularly in Latin and South America. DAVIS said the colonial movement is shockingly similar to the Negro movement in America but that the Party has not reacted properly to the Negro problems. DAVIS believed the reason for this is that the Party did not have a clearly defined position on the Negro Question being the result of a Party convulsed with the struggle to eliminate that section of leadership, symbolized in the position of GATES, which sought to liquidate the Party. During this period various points of view on the Negro Question were produced by the right wing, the essence of which was to destroy the Party. He said that now HARRY HAYWOOD has brought forth a long document on Negro work which represents the "ultra-left". DAVIS described HAYWOOD's document as being dogmatic, sectarian and very dangerous and damaging to the Party.

DAVIS said the statewide conference on Negro work will have to develop a Party position on Negro work in so far as it applies to NYC and New York State. DAVIS acknowledged that this would be difficult to do without first defining the theoretical perspective on the Negro Question with respect to the South. When this position is defined, DAVIS opined it will have several main aspects. These would be that it is still a national question, although changed from 20 or 15 years previously; that it is a special question due to its unique history, and that many problems for Negro rights still exist in the North.

DAVIS commented that it is the duty of the Party to bring forth an approach for the achievement of full citizenship of the Negro people in NY State; to relate and detail its relationship to the Negro movement in the South and to place the whole struggle within the world picture. DAVIS at this point thought the role of the Party would essentially fall into three categories: (1) development of a militant and united support for full citizenship of the Negro people on all fronts; (2) Development of a consistent, conscious left within the whole struggle for Negro rights and (3) development among the trade union movement and the Negro workers of a more decisive role in the Negro struggle.

On the first point mentioned above, DAVIS thought the NAACP has been the center of the movement, in a legal sense, for the right to hold public office, the right to vote, and the upholding of the Supreme Court decisions. He also thought that a trend represented by the leadership of ^{the} MARTIN LUTHER KING pressing for the broadest mass struggles also follows from point one.

On the second point, DAVIS thought that PAUL ROBESON's book has laid the foundations and has given the line to those forces outside the Party, or those in, who have tried to point out, falsely, that there is no room for a legitimate left trend among the Negro people.

On the third point DAVIS thought that the labor movement has to fight for the demands of the Negro people. It has to be stressed that the labor movement, only when it is fighting for the entire Negro movement as such, will it be fulfilling the demands of the Negro movement alliance.

DAVIS thought that Party members should first of all join the Negro people's organizations, the NAACP, the Negro churches, to work for the three propositions he outlined above. DAVIS also said that he does not see "our Party" undertaking to set up at this time a whole series of left organizations. Such an attempt at this time could only be very abortive since "we are in a quite different stage of the whole world movement and Negro people's movement."

The informant advised that DAVIS thought the Party could bring forward its own independent position in an independent way in two fields. First there needs to be a Negro Marxist publication and secondly in the field of Negro jobs and unemployment in the labor movement.

DAVIS on an aside said that the Party has many things in common with the NAACP, the Negro churches, who are fighting for full citizenship. But, he said, the Party differs considerably from some of those forces, on the question of the identity of the enemy. He said many of these forces consider the Party the enemy, whereas it should be pointed out definitely that monopoly capital is the enemy. He said certain monopoly organizations who oppose integration of housing, or integration of schools should be definitely pointed out.

DAVIS also thought the Party has to correct certain things which were wrong in their past positions. He cited the Party once held the idea that the Negro upper class could play no positive role in the Negro movement. He said that now "they" find that the Negro upper class can play a definite role.

DAVIS concluded his report by reminding that the Party has to fight white chauvinism and nationalism within the Party. He attributed these two factors for the cause of unauthorized documents being spread around the Party and for comrades making unauthorized excursions into areas of the Party where they have no jurisdiction just to achieve some personal point in a struggle with the Party.

The informant advised that BILL ALBERTSON spoke on the importance of PAUL ROBESON's book and suggested selling 25,000 copies since he sees it as the basis for once again re-establishing the left in the Negro people's movement. ALBERTSON said the book would be sold to the Party, the State, for 60¢ a copy and he suggested the State sell it to the Counties for 65¢ and they in turn sell it for $1.00. ALBERTSON suggested that the Counties might make arrangements with unemployed comrades to sell the book for a 30 or 35¢ commission. He thought Manhattan could consider a quota of 7,000 copies; Brooklyn 6,500; Bronx and Queens 2,500 each; Industry 4,000 and for Nassau, Westchester and the Upstate area 3,000 each.

[] said that DAVIS characterized HARRY's (HAYWOOD) document as ultra-left but that DAVIS does not specify all that he disagrees with in it. According to the informant LOMAN then said "I won't say that I agree with every formulation that HARRY has written. I don't want to discuss how to circulate or what, but in terms of theoretical content.... from all I studied in Marxism-Leninism I agree with the overwhelming political content in that document."

[] urged the comrades to read HARRY's (HAYWOOD) document carefully because on a Marxist - Leninist line he [] thinks it is sound. [] said the National leadership on one hand has a position; the National Committee a few years later takes another position. He said he agrees with the question of the progressive role of the Negro people's movements.

In conclusion [] said he disagrees sharply with BEN (DAVIS) on Jersey. He said he went to Jersey not only because it was his right but also his duty. He said there were thirteen Negro members in the Party that the Jersey Party has bureaucratically kept out of the Party for four years. He thought it was the duty of BEN (DAVIS) to go to Jersey or JACK (STACHEL) or GEN DENNIS or BOB THOMPSON instead of his. [] added that he is a member of the National Committee and he is ready to discuss that before the National Executive Committee, the Jersey Board, the NY State Board or State Committee. He said they should let these people into the Party; that they agree with the Convention; that they agree with the National Committee line.

[] remarked that ROBESON identifies himself openly, publicly and unmistakably with BEN DAVIS. She feels that BEN DAVIS, as the strongest voice in the Negro community, must speak publicly once a week in Harlem. He must go from organization to organization just as ROBESON once did. She said the Party has the responsibility to make it possible for DAVIS to play such a role.

b6
b7C

The informant advised that [] gave vehement support to HAYWOOD's document and hotly contested DAVIS' remarks about nationalism.

b6
b7C

WILLIAM PATTERSON said that the Negro struggle must be carried on in an international level showing that American imperialists violate every concept of the United Nations. PATTERSON said that strategically DAVIS is right in calling American imperialism the main enemy in the Negro movement, but tactically it doesn't clarify anything. The Negro masses don't actually see American imperialism but they do see the government and PATTERSON thinks the struggle should be directed at the governments.

An unknown male (believed to be []) said that Buffalo has 75,000 Negroes with 50% of them in basic industry. The Negro leadership in the area is composed of Negro professionals, business men and church leaders. They have broken through in city government but this leadership has not really advanced the cause of the working class Negro. As a result, this unknown person believed that on the basis of working with the present Negro leadership there has to be more than just welding and strengthening it as DAVIS ~~has~~ ~~done~~. On the question of ROBESON's book, this unknown person [] was in favor of distributing the book, but ~~he~~ ~~it~~ agreed that there was a danger of taking the book for an "end-all" and that the issue may become beclouded by the number of books they sell.

b7C

[] said the problem with the CP is that the Party has not had a program which makes them different from the mass movement. If they are merely going into the NAACP and like organizations and follow their programs, the Party is doing nothing new. He says the membership cries for an independent program.

b6
b7C

NY 100-26603

[] said that it was silly to call a Negro Conference on Negro work and not discuss theory. She told BEN DAVIS that it was not his responsibility to characterize HAYWOOD's document as super-left and then scrap it. She thought the document should be read and that time should be set aside to discuss the document. She stated the discussion of ROBESON's book was used as a gimmick to divert the Board's discussion. She thinks ROBESON's book is good but it is not a program for the CP. She said they have to begin discussions on the South and its relationship to NY to America and the world.

WILL WEINSTONE said the theoretical questions cannot be solved quickly. They take time. He favors making arrangements for theoretical discussions, for the objective approach but that the comrades must realize this will take months. WEINSTONE stated the comrades must not underestimate the importance of ROBESON's book. He said ROBESON identified himself with DAVIS and the Soviet Union in such a way that it is a wedge, a way to create an atmosphere and ideological dissension and reorientation which can only create a most helpfull atmosphere.

WEINSTONE said the Conference should have two aspects: (1) The program of mass work and struggle, (2) The whole question of the Party. On the question of the Party he would favor any activity which places the name of the Party before the people. This would include appearances by DAVIS, educational programs, leaflets in order to bring the identity of socialism to the masses and the Soviet Union to the masses.

DAVIS summarized the meeting. He said he would propose referring the HAYWOOD document to the Staff. He said that as to his previous comments on HAYWOOD's document, he stands by them.

NY 100-26603

The informant advised that the following people were nominated to make arrangements for the Negro Conference: [redacted] and BILL ALBERTSON.

b6

Also nominated were [redacted] and [redacted]. On the question of HAYWOOD's document a motion was made to publish it in Political Affairs. The informant could not advise whether the above two motions carried.

The informant stated DAVIS suggested the Staff look into the problem of the way in which documents get circulated in the Party without Party permission and sanction. DAVIS also mentioned a special mobilization of the Party around the NYC budget hearings on 4/15, 16/58 during which time the question of education will be considered. The informant could not advise what action was taken on this proposal.

The informant stated DAVIS proposed they set up a committee to get a protest going on the question of Cuba. He proposed [redacted], [redacted] The informant could not advise if any action was taken on this proposal.

The informant also advised that [redacted], [redacted] commented on ROBESON's book and the school situation.

LIGHTFOOT and [] then went into a discussion of the Party debate. Growing out of this came a comment from LIGHTFOOT that many who left the Party in New York expected another organization to be formed, but no such organization has been formed.

b7C

LIGHTFOOT said SID (STEIN) has thought these people could be won back, but he, LIGHTFOOT, is convinced they cannot be brought back unless the Party is active and doing things positively. In the meantime, he feels measures should be taken so they are not dispersed. LIGHTFOOT told [] the membership is now around 6,000 or less. Just take New York; they have only 2,300 members there. So SID's idea is to hold together these people (who have left) and organize them. LIGHTFOOT added that apparently New York, unlike this District and others, does have these people organized already.

b6

Concerning Illinois, LIGHTFOOT said that in 1946 the South Side had 1,800 members. Today they have registered 42. If one makes an analysis of the 42 people, he would venture to say about 30 of the 42 "aren't going to influence nobody", because they are old people.

LIGHTFOOT mentioned that the South Side has been trying to do something. He noted they were able to bring to one meeting the President of the Alphas. About 22 were present for this meeting. Further, the South Side people are going to see the Editor of "The Crusader" on issues. [] is getting out a leaflet. LIGHTFOOT commented that this is the restoration of the citizenship of the Left with non-Left forces.

On 2/23/58 [] called [] He told her that he had met with Emanuel Blum on Saturday, 2/22/58. He did not state the exact place this meeting took place, and he did not say in addition to himself who was present. He made mention of the fact that he had some things which he wanted to give to Lyon so they made arrangements to meet shortly afterward.

b6
b7C

They met as planned, and [] advised [] that there would be no meeting of the City Committee of the Communist Party in South Bend on Monday, 2/24/58, but that there would be such a meeting the following week which would be March 3, 1958. He stated that there would be a meeting of the Labor Club of the Communist Party in South Bend on 2/25/58.

It is to be noted that a women's club meeting of the Communist Party is planned for Wednesday, 2/26/58.

[] stated that on Thursday night, 2/20/58, the patrol of the Boy Scouts troop of the First Unitarian Church at South Bend, which he serves as patrol dad, met at his house. Also he stated that the troop meeting of this troop was scheduled for Wednesday night, 2/26/58, at the First Unitarian Church in South Bend.

b6
b7C

In commenting upon the reason why the City Committee meeting would be delayed was due to the fact that it was held on Monday nights, [] stated that if it was held at [] house on Monday nights, [] came home early. [] stated that he did not like for [] to sit in on the meeting, which she does when she gets home.

b6
b7C

[] told [] that as soon as they finished talking this morning, he intended to attend church at the First Unitarian Church in South Bend.

b6
b7C

[] related that he was making plans to have [] visit him, [], in the [] residence, the latter part of this week.

b6
b7C

[] gave to [] a list of names in the number of about 250. He told her that this was the list to which the copies of the current "Workers' Advance" was to be mailed. He told [] that he wanted her to type up copies on stickers in preparation of the mailing of the "Workers' Advance." Previously [] had indicated that he might give this job to [] and he

b6
b7C

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

commented at this time that there were a lot of Party people whose names appeared on the list and that he did not want [] doing this work. [] stated that in addition to the 250 copies of the "Workers' Advance" which will be mailed out to the names on the list he was furnishing to [], that [] sends out bundles of these "Workers' Advance" to citizens in towns around in Indiana, and that the total number of issues thus distributed was about 250. This makes a total of about 500 copies of the "Workers' Advance" which is mailed out either singly or in a bundle.

b6

[] told [] that in typing up the name stickers for the mailing that she might be able to make an original and four copies which would last four months. He stated that [] could do the stapling on the "Workers' Advance"; that is, folding it over and stapling it together. They planned that the Women's Club of the Communist Party at their meeting on 2/26/58 could do the final assembling of the "Workers' Advance" and prepare it to go out. [] himself will then mail the copies.

b6
b7C

Boorda gave Lyon a copy of the current "Workers' Advance" and commented that on Page 3 was an article which was signed [] which had actually been written by []

b6
b7C

[] had with him a copy of the "Gary Post Tribune" and remarked that on the editorial page was a letter which was signed by the wife of [] commented that [] was one of the individuals who had been subpoenaed and had testified for the Un-American Activities Committee which held hearings in Gary, Indiana, recently. [] stated that he thought the letter was a wonderful thing. He said that it showed courage on the part of []

b6
b7C

[] also had the 2/20/58 issue of the "Gary Post Tribune" which contained an article by the ICLU which was also against the hearings, as mentioned above.

b6
b7C

[] stated that Blum had brought back with him from his meeting in the East, copies of resolutions which he had furnished to [] to give to [] and to []. One of these resolutions dealt with the resignation of John Gates from the Communist Party and another one was by Eugene Dennis which proposed uniting and strengthening the Communist Party, particularly regarding mass organizational work.

b6
b7C

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[] remarked that [] his wife, has taken up anew with her old boyfriend.

b6
b7C

It is recalled that recently [] discussed with [] the possibility of her reactivating herself in the First Unitarian Church of South Bend, Indiana. At this time, [] went over some of these facts with [] and told him that she felt that if she reactivated herself in the church, that is, start attending church and engage in church activities, that she might interfere with the things that he had been doing in the church. She pointed out that he had been successful in his work there and that she felt that if there was a chance that her attending church might in any way interfere with the things that he was doing, it would be best if she did not attend. [] admitted that he had been doing some good work in the church and in this connection, mentioned his work in connection with the Scouts and his direction and work with the Dramatic Club of the church and putting on a play there. He also mentioned certain individuals with whom he was on a friendly basis and in the end stated that perhaps [] was right in her appraisal of the situation.

b7C

[] then stated that Emanuel Blum had gone to the eastern part of the United States to see William Z. Foster and that Blum had advised [] upon his return that Foster had told Blum that he regarded the Indiana Substitute Labor Draft a wonderful piece of literature. In previous conversations, [] had hinted at the fact that he felt that one reason that Blum was being talked to by Foster was that Foster might have in mind elevating Blum in the Communist Party and that it was not without some basis that Blum might be considered for a top leadership position in the Party. [] in talking about the meeting between Blum and Foster showed a little disappointment because he stated that one of the reasons why Foster wanted to talk with Blum, as it developed at their meeting, was that Foster wanted Blum to support Dennis. This was not the exact turn of events that [] had anticipated. According to [], Foster told Blum that Dennis was coming around and was changing his attitude to bring it more in line with the left wing of the Communist Party.

b7C

In commenting upon the national organization of the Communist Party, [] stated that in the organization now constituted Fred Fine, Stein, and Steve Nelson did not now hold a position on the national executive committee. [] indicated by his reference to this that these individuals had been cut off from this position which they held previously. [] stated that Emanuel Blum was not on this national committee and did not try to get on it. Among the people who are on this committee mentioned by [], were Ben Davis and D. Davis, and Elizabeth Flynn, Dennis.

b6
b7C

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In explaining the organization of the CP, [] mentioned the fact that the Administrative Committee of the Communist Party is a part of the Executive Committee. He said that the Executive Committee has the authority to speak for the Party.

[] related that while Blum was visiting in the East that Blum ran into some opposition on the Indiana Substitute Draft Labor Resolution and that Blum was accused of being ultra left.

[] explained that the ultra left wing of the Communist Party was made up for example by people who were sympathetic toward the Hungarians and that when the Hungarian Revolution took place, some of them left the Party, but others remained in the Party and do not know support anything except that which is ultra left.

[] explained that Emanuel Blum is not in the ultra left wing of the Communist Party and that certain changes would be made in the resolution to clear this matter up. [] indicated that Blum was to make these changes.

[] asked [] regarding the total Party membership of the Communist Party and [] stated that the total membership was much less than 10,000 people and has gone down since the last CP registration.

[] stated that while Blum was in conference with CP leaders in the eastern part of the United States that a chairman for the Communist Party was discussed and that the decision was reached that no one in the Communist Party could fill the chairmanship at the present time. The decision was further reached, according to Boorda, that the Party would continue to operate without a National Chairman of the Communist Party. He related that the reason for this was that the right wing of the Communist Party was afraid of the left wing and vice versa and that since neither of them trusted the other, they could not agree on a chairman.

It is recalled that [] had related that as a result of the Un-American Activities Committee hearings which were held in Gary, Indiana, that some Party people might be fired from their jobs, and [] stated at this time that so far no one had been fired.

At 4:10 P. [] was called into the back room on the first floor. It was a large room with three or four benches in it. Books and periodicals were stacked along the wall. [] sat by herself when Huegel entered but then she called in a young negro (male, 5' 10" 10, 150, about 26 yrs old, pencil moustache) to sit and listen. She explained that [] wanted to join the Party but had a few problems.

[] asked Huegel what he intended to do after leaving school. Huegel explained he was seeking enrollment in the International Ladies Garment Workers Union Training Institute. He mentioned he was interviewed by Gus Tyler its director. She replied that Tyler was a red baiter. Huegel and [] talked about the questions Tyler asked him and why [] wanted to go to that school. Huegel replied that the formal training they offered was the best to be found. [] agreed and said union work was important to the Party. When Huegel explained to Weiner that at present, because of the school, he could not openly support Party functions, and because of this thought himself to be cowardly, Weiner replied that such a feeling was only normal.

On 5/1/58, [] who has furnished reliable information in the past, orally advised SA [] of the following. This information was rough drafted on 5/1/58 into statement form, typed by Stenographer [] on 5/2/58, and was then read and initialed by the informant on 5/13/58. It is maintained in []

"Philadelphia, Pa.
May 1, 1958

"On April 30, 1958, there was a meeting of the factional group held at the residence of [] Street, Philadelphia, Pa. This meeting was attended by the following people:

b6

HARRY HEYWOOD and wife

AL [] (white male, bald, wears glasses, 5'7"-5'9", 165 lbs., late 40's or early 50's, collecting unemployment compensation, wife is working, lives on East Side, Chicago)

"The HEYWOODs and [] are from New York City. The HEYWOODs also had with them their child, approximately 2 years old.

b6

[] were to attend this meeting but did not do so.

[] acted as Chairman and gave a short outline of this caucus. [] was most interested in having his statement endorsed by this group, which statement concerned the return of the CPUSA to the strict interpretation of the Marx-Lenin principles. However, to do this would necessitate a National Convention, CPUSA.

b6
b7C

[] stated the members of his section have not seen this statement and he would not endorse it until it was discussed with them. If after a proper discussion they agree with it, then they would endorse it. However, he declined his endorsement until after such a discussion. [] also told [] this was the correct way in going about this, and [] was not doing it the proper way.

b6
b7C

"AL from Chicago said CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Secretary in Chicago, stated there were several thousand comrades in the Chicago area. However, [] said there were only 38 members at the present time. It has been estimated there have been 5,000 comrades in the U. S., but actually they are lucky if they have over 3,000. There are two caucuses in Chicago, both divided. The old caucus is dead but the new caucus is progressing.

"HARRY HEYWOOD stated the problem was Negro history-- the struggle for the rights of the Negro. New York has a similar problem as that of Philadelphia, only worse because they were close to national headquarters. Our activities are controlled, they tell us what to do and what not to do. We once had 3,000 members in New York. Today, the best we have are 98 and they are not in good standing. (Believe this refers to the Harlem area). HEYWOOD said that according to the present trend, within six months there won't be any Communist Party. Through the Party is the only way the Negro is going to be able to fight. If the CP should ever fall out and have no voice in the unions and the capitalist-controlled world, the Negro would have nothing to fight for.

[] stated there will always be a Communist Party in the United States regardless of the circumstances. He indicated the Party in New York City is so close to national headquarters, they are controlled by the national office and there is more pressure on them than the Party in Philadelphia and other places.

b6
b7C

"The next discussion centered around the recent killing of a Korean exchange student at the University of Pennsylvania by eleven Negro youths. [] didn't agree with the decision of Commissioner GIBBONS in assigning 125 patrolmen to that area where the killing took place. He said recently that three sailors, all white, attacked an

b6
b7C

"old white man near 8th and Snyder and beat him with a pipe. That too was a horrible thing but there was no effort to get extra policemen for that area, nor was there any publicity. The newspapers are giving this last killing too much publicity and only because it involves the Negroes. [] said District Attorney BLANC has asked the death penalty for the eleven Negro youths and has made this a big issue. He suggested they get into unions, lodges, and other organizations through some political influence to get up a petition against the mass execution of the Negro youths by the District Attorney. We should get into an organization and get such a petition started.

b6

[] agreed on what was said. She took notes during the meeting.

[] said they should find a way of contacting some of the political authorities for the name of the organization who sought extra police protection and we should form a similar organization and do the same.

b6
b7C

[] said he had been to a meeting and brought up the subject of the caucus. However, nobody knew anything about it and he suggested a meeting should be arranged with the members of this group and explain [] statement to them.

b6
b7C

[] asked HEYWOOD what he thought of this student killing.

b6
b7C

"HEYWOOD inquired of the Negro press and what it said. Some of those present stated it hadn't come out yet, but FOSTER, [] said it had come out in "The Independent," a local Negro newspaper.

b6
b7C

"AL spoke up and said [] had submitted an article to the national office of the CP and it was also published in "Party Affairs." AL said [] was criticized for his statement did not follow the Marxist-Leninist principles. He didn't approve of [] article and his interpretation of Marxism and Leninism.

b6
b7C

"HEYWOOD then read some of the statements made by [] which appeared in "Party Affairs."

b6
b7C

PH 100-33150

"The next meeting of this caucus was set for May 19, 1958, at the residence of [REDACTED]. There will also be a meeting of the steering committee on May 21, 1958. The location of this meeting was not mentioned but [REDACTED] said he would contact [REDACTED] and have this meeting at his residence, 329 Pine Street.

b6
b7C

"HEYWOOD is taking [REDACTED] statement to New York to be mimeographed and will be circulated in the Harlem section of New York, East Side of Chicago, and the Puerto Rican section of Philadelphia."

b6
b7C

The HEYWOODs, [REDACTED] (LNU) stayed overnight at the [REDACTED] residence, [REDACTED] Street, and the [REDACTED] stayed with a sister-in-law who resides in the vicinity of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Streets, Philadelphia.

All during the conversation which lasted nearly an hour [] acted as an interrogator. She seldom agreed or disagreed with what [] said and did not look at him while he was talking. When [], in response to her question about joining the Communist Party, said that at present he could not do it openly, [] replied that it would not have to be necessary. She then asked him how much he has read about Marxism and advised him to schedule himself so that he can do some reading each day.

[] said she would like to talk further but had another appointment. She suggested they meet two weeks later May 10, at 3:00 PM on the corner of First Ave. and 36th St. [] changed the location after [] told her about meeting [] thought another talk would be wise because by then he could do more thinking on the matter and also know his status at the union school.
